

National Laws

Legislation of Interpol member states on sexual offences against children

Serbia Montenegro - Serbie et Monténégro - Serbia y Montenegro

Beograd

The information on this page is up to date as of spring 2006

Information has only been received in regard to child pornography legislation:

V. Child pornography

Exploiting minors for pornography purposes is punishable according to the legislation of Serbia Montenegro. Pursuant to Article 111 of the Criminal Code of Serbia Montenegro, a criminal offence of "Abusing minors for pornography purposes" is foreseen, where for the plain kind of this criminal offence the perpetrator faces from one to five years of imprisonment. If the victim of this criminal offence was younger than 14, the offender faces at least three years imprisonment.