MODIFICATION OF THE GENERAL REGULATIONS	8

GENERAL REGULATIONS OF THE INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL POLICE ORGANIZATION-INTERPOL

Article 1

These General Regulations and Appendices have been adopted in accordance with Article 44 of the Constitution of the Organization.

Should there be any differences between the two, the Constitution shall prevail.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY: PLACE - DATE - CONVENING

Article 2

The General Assembly shall meet every year in ordinary session.

The Rules of Procedure of the General Assembly shall lay down the rules and procedures governing the functioning and decision-making process of the General Assembly.

Article 3

Any Member may, on behalf of its country, invite the Assembly to meet on the territory of that country.

If this is impossible, the meeting shall be held at the seat of the Organization.

Article 4

Any such invitation should be sent to the President before the beginning of the debates of the Assembly.

Article 5

If the Executive Committee considers that circumstances are unfavourable to the meeting of the Assembly in the place fixed at its previous session, it may decide on another place.

Article 6

The President shall fix the date when the Assembly is to meet after consulting the authorities of the inviting country and the Secretary General.

Article 7

The date and place having been decided upon, the notices convening Members shall be sent not less than four months in advance by:

- (a) The inviting country to the other countries, through diplomatic channels;
- (b) The Secretary General to the various Members of the Organization.

Article 8

The following may be invited to be present at meetings as observers:

- (a) Police bodies which are not members of the Organization;
- (b) International organizations.

The list of observers shall be drawn up by the Executive Committee and should be approved by the inviting country.

The observers mentioned in § (a) shall be jointly invited by the inviting country and the Secretary General, while those mentioned in § (b) only by the Secretary General, after agreement of the Executive Committee and of the inviting country.

AGENDA

Article 9

The provisional agenda of the meeting shall be drawn up by the Executive Committee and communicated to Members not less than 90 days before the opening of the session.

Article 10

The provisional agenda shall include:

- (a) The report of the Secretary General on the work of the Organization;
- (b) The Secretary General's financial report and the draft budget;
- (c) The general programme of activities proposed by the Secretary General for the coming year;
- (d) Items whose inclusion has been ordered at the previous session of the Assembly;
- (e) Items proposed by Members;
- (f) Items inserted by the Executive Committee or the Secretary General.

Article 11

GENERAL REGULATIONS OF THE INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL POLICE ORGANIZATION-INTERPOL

Any Member may, thirty days before the opening of the session, request that an item be added to the agenda.

Article 12

Before the opening meeting of the Assembly, the Executive Committee shall form the provisional agenda and the supplement to the agenda into a final agenda in the order of the urgency and priority of the items. The items left over from the previous session shall be deemed to take priority over the items suggested for the coming session.

Article 13

In so far as is possible, Members shall receive, thirty days before the opening meeting of the session, the information necessary for the examination of reports and items on the agenda.

EXTRAORDINARY SESSIONS

Article 14

Extraordinary sessions shall be held, in principle, at the seat of the Organization.

An extraordinary session shall be convened, after assent has been given by the President, by the Secretary General as soon as possible and not less than thirty days and no more than ninety days after the request has been made.

Article 15

In principle, the agenda of an extraordinary session may only include the object for its convening.

DELEGATIONS AND VOTING

Article 16

Members shall notify the Secretary General as early as possible of the composition of their delegations.

Article 17

The General Assembly shall make its decisions in plenary session by means of resolutions.

Article 18

Subject to Article 52 of the General Regulations, each country represented has one vote.

Voting shall be performed by the head of the delegation or some other delegate.

The representative of one Member may not vote for another Member.

Article 19

The decisions of the Assembly shall be taken by a simple majority, except where otherwise provided by the Constitution.

Article 20

The majority shall be decided by a count of those persons present and casting an affirmative or negative vote. Those who abstain may justify their attitude.

When the Constitution requires a "majority of the Members" the calculation of this majority shall be based on the total number of the Members of the Organization, whether they are represented or not at the session of the Assembly.

Article 21

Voting shall be done by single ballot, except where a two-thirds majority is required.

In the latter case, if the required majority is not obtained the first time, a second vote shall be taken.

Article 22

Voting shall be done by show of hands, record vote or secret ballot.

At any time a delegate may request a record vote to be taken except in cases where a secret ballot is required by the Constitution.

Article 23

Persons composing the Executive Committee shall be elected by secret ballot.

If two candidates obtain the same number of votes, a second ballot shall be taken. If this is not decisive, lots shall be drawn to determine which shall be chosen.

GENERAL REGULATIONS OF THE INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL
POLICE ORGANIZATION-INTERPOL

Article 24

Resolutions may be voted on paragraph by paragraph, on the request of any delegate. In such a case, the whole shall subsequently be put to the vote.

Only one complete resolution shall be voted on at one time.

Article 25

When an amendment to a proposal is moved, the amendment shall be voted on first.

If there are several amendments, the President shall put them to the vote separately, commencing with the ones furthest removed from the basis of the original proposal.

CONDUCT OF BUSINESS

Article 26

Meetings of the Assembly and the committees shall not be public, unless otherwise decided by the Assembly.

Article 27

The Assembly may limit the time to be allowed to each speaker.

Article 28

When a motion is under discussion, any Member may raise a point of order and this point of order shall be immediately decided by the President.

Should this be contested, any delegate may appeal to the Assembly, which shall immediately decide by a vote.

Article 29

If, during the discussions, a speaker moves the suspension or adjournment of the meeting or the debates, the matter shall immediately be put to the vote.

Article 30

A delegate may at any time move the closure of the debates. Two speakers opposed to the closure may then speak, after which the Assembly shall decide whether to accede to the motion.

Article 31

The Assembly may not vote on a draft resolution unless copies of it in all the working languages have been distributed.

Amendments and counter-proposals may be discussed immediately unless a majority of Members request that written copies of them shall be distributed first.

When a draft resolution has financial consequences, the Executive Committee shall be requested to give its opinion and the discussions postponed.

Article 32

The Secretary General or his or her representative may intervene in the discussions at any moment.

SECRETARIAT

Article 33

Summary records of the debates of the Assembly in the working languages shall be distributed as soon as possible.

Article 34

The Secretary General shall be responsible for the secretariat work of the Assembly; for this purpose he shall engage the necessary personnel and direct and control them.

COMMITTEES

Article 35

- (1) At each session, the Assembly shall form such committees as it deems necessary. On the proposal of the President, it shall allocate work relative to the various items on the agenda to each committee.
- (2) When it decides to create a regional conference, the General Assembly shall delegate to the latter the power to fix the date, place and conditions of its meetings, taking into account the proposals of member countries. If the regional conference does not take the appropriate decisions, the General Assembly shall take them.

POLICE ORGANIZATION-INTERPOL

Article 36

- (1) Each committee shall elect its own chairman. Each committee member shall have the right to vote. Meetings of the committees shall be subject to the same rules as the plenary sessions of the Assembly.
- (2) The provisions of paragraph 1 of the present Article shall also apply to regional conferences.

Article 37

- (1) The chairman of each committee or a reporter nominated by it shall render a verbal account of its work to the Assembly.
- (2) The chairmen of regional conferences may also transmit recommendations made by the conferences to the General Secretariat which shall be responsible for co-ordinating any proposed resolutions to be submitted to the General Assembly.

Article 38

Unless otherwise decided by the Assembly, any committee may be consulted between sessions.

The President, after consultation with the Secretary General, may summon a committee to meet.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Article 39

The Rules of Procedure of the Executive Committee shall lay down the rules and procedures governing the functioning and decision-making process of the Executive Committee.

Article 40

The General Assembly shall establish an Elections Board at the beginning of each session.

The Elections Board shall scrutinize the nominations to determine whether they are valid and supervise the election of Executive Committee members.

At the end of the ordinary session, the General Assembly shall hold elections in order to fill such vacancies on the Executive Committee as exist. Nominations must be put forward by the Members. Members whose voting rights have been suspended under Article 52 of the General Regulations may not put forward nominees for election.

Article 41

If, for any reason whatsoever, the President can no longer perform his or her duties either during or between sessions, his or her place shall temporarily be taken by the senior Vice-President.

Should all the Vice-Presidents be absent, the duties of President shall provisionally devolve upon a Delegate of the Executive Committee designated by the other members of the Executive Committee.

GENERAL SECRETARIAT

Article 42

The Assembly shall elect a Secretary General by secret ballot for a term of office of five years.

The candidate for the post of Secretary General shall be proposed by the Executive Committee.

Article 43

The Secretary General should be or have been a police official.

Article 44

The five-year term of office of the Secretary General shall commence at the end of the incumbent's term of office and terminate at the end of the General Assembly session held in the year in which his or her term of office expires.

The Secretary General's term of office shall terminate on completion of the prescribed five-year period provided for in Article 28 of the Constitution, or in the event of the Secretary General's resignation, death, removal from office, or upon reaching the age limit as specified in Article 28 of the Constitution.

The Executive Committee shall determine the Secretary General's conditions of employment.

Article 45

Should the Secretary General be unable to carry out his or her duties, these shall be performed in the interim by the highest-ranking official in the General Secretariat, provided that the Executive Committee has no objection.

GENERAL REGULATIONS OF THE INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL
POLICE ORGANIZATION-INTERPOL

THE ADVISERS

Article 46

Advisers may be individually or collectively consulted on the initiative of the Assembly, the Executive Committee, the President or the Secretary General. They may make suggestions of a scientific nature to the General Secretariat or the Executive Committee.

Article 47

At the request of the General Assembly, the Executive Committee or the Secretary General, reports or papers on scientific matters may be submitted to the Assembly by Advisers.

Article 48

Advisers may be present at meetings of the General Assembly as observers and, on the invitation of the President, may take part in the discussions.

Article 49

Several Advisers may be nationals of the same country.

Article 50

The Advisers may meet when convened by the President of the Organization.

BUDGET - FINANCE - PERSONNEL

Article 51

The Financial Regulations shall lay down rules governing:

- the determination of statutory contributions and payment conditions,
- the preparation, approval, implementation and control of the budget,
- the organization of an accounting system and the keeping, control and approval of the accounts,
- the procurement of works, supplies and services and the control of contracts, and shall also contain all relevant general provisions concerning the Organization's financial management.

Article 52

- (1) Any Member that has not paid its statutory contributions to the Organization for the current financial year and the previous financial year shall have no vote in the General Assembly, other than votes taken on amendments to the Organization's Constitution.
- (2) The Secretary General shall send a written notification to any Member that has failed to pay its statutory contributions to the Organization. The notification shall draw attention to the sanctions applied and the supporting measures established by the General Secretariat to encourage timely payment of contributions due. The Secretary General shall accordingly inform the Executive Committee and, where relevant, the General Assembly.
- (3) The General Assembly may, nevertheless, decide to waive the suspension of voting rights at its discretion, if the item has been added to the agenda of the session of the General Assembly.

Article 53

The Staff Regulations shall specify the staff members of the Organization to which they apply, and lay down the rules and procedures governing their management. These rules shall specify the basic conditions of employment and the basic duties and rights of the staff members.

LANGUAGES

Article 54

- (1) The working languages of the Organization shall be Arabic, English, French and Spanish.
- (2) During General Assembly sessions, any delegate may speak in another language provided that he or she makes arrangements for the interpretation of his or her speeches into one of the languages mentioned in paragraph 1 of this Article. Any request submitted by a group of countries for simultaneous interpretation of a language other than those mentioned in paragraph 1 of this Article must be sent, at least four months before the opening of the General Assembly session, to the Secretary General who will state whether such interpretation will be technically feasible.

POLICE ORGANIZATION-INTERPOL

- (3) Countries wishing to apply the special provisions in paragraph 2 of this Article may do so only if they have undertaken to provide adequate administrative facilities and to meet all expenses involved.

MODIFICATION OF THE GENERAL REGULATIONS

Article 55

These Regulations and their Appendices may be modified at the request of any Member so long as the suggested modification has been sent to the General Secretariat at least 120 days before the opening of the following session. The Secretary General shall circulate this proposal at least 90 days before the session of the General Assembly.

The Secretary General may propose a modification to the General Regulations or their Appendices by circulating his or her proposal to Members at least 90 days before the session of the General Assembly.

During the session, in case of urgent necessity, any modification of the Regulations or their Appendices may be placed before the Assembly provided a written proposal to this effect be submitted jointly by three Members.

Article 56

The General Assembly shall take a decision on the proposed modification of the Regulations or their Appendices after consultation with an “ad hoc” committee composed of three delegates elected by the Assembly and two persons appointed by the Executive Committee.

This committee shall also be consulted on any proposal for the modification of the Constitution.
