TEXT OF RESOLUTION

WHEREAS air transport is continuously developing throughout the world,

WHEREAS difficulties arise during the course of air travel,

The ICPO-Interpol General Assembly, meeting in Copenhagen from 4th to 9th September 1961 at its 30th session:

URGENTLY DRAWS the attention of international bodies and national authorities to the urgent need for defining the legal powers of aircraft commanders;

SUGGESTS that the preliminary draft drawn up to this effect by the legal committee of the International Civil Aviation Organization be studied and that all appropriate measures should be quickly taken by countries in order to ensure the safety of individuals and their property.
