WELCOME TO IIPCIC

The International Intellectual Property (IP) Crime Investigators College (IIPCIC) is a fully interactive online training facility that aims to equip investigators with the skills necessary to effectively combat transnational organized IP crime. The INTERPOL Illicit Goods and Global Health Programme works in cooperation with Underwriters Laboratories, Inc. to deliver this important crime-fighting tool.

IIPCIC aims to:

- ▶ Provide IP crime professionals with evidence of specialist awareness and learning on the subject of transnational organized IP crime.
- ▶ Deliver leading-edge training that meets international standards and allows IP crime investigators from any discipline to quickly identify other certified investigators.
- ▶ Facilitate cooperation between the public and private sectors in the fight against IP crime.
- ▶ Ensure all public and private sector IP Crime Investigators have a common understanding of the problems facing them; are aware of each other's competencies and roles; know what intervention strategies and tactics work; and, are better able to work together in partnership in enforcement operations.
