

LIST OF CRIME AREAS FOR RECRUITMENT PURPOSES

The following constitutes a non-exhaustive list of crime areas or police capabilities expertise that secondment candidates may choose as areas of interest in the framework of their application to INTERPOL Secondment Programme.

Financial Crimes

- Anti-corruption
- Money Laundering and Asset Recovery
- Fraud and Financial Crimes
- Counterfeit currency and security documents

Cyber and Digital Forensics crime

- Cyber crime
- Darknet investigations
- Cryptocurrency tracing
- Ransomware analysis
- AI fraud detection

Transnational and Organized Crime

- Human trafficking and smuggling networks
- Crimes Against Children
- War crimes and illicit arms
- Vehicle crime
- Drug Trafficking
- Works of Art
- Illicit Goods and Global Health
- Intellectual Property Crime and Digital Piracy
- Public Health & Pharmaceutical Crime

Environmental crime

- Wildlife
- Fisheries
- Forestry
- Pollution
- Illegal Mining

Counter-Terrorism and Extremism

- Counterterrorism
- Chemical and Explosives Terrorism Prevention
- Radiological and Nuclear Terrorism Prevention
- Bioterrorism Prevention

Forensics and Bio-Crime

- DNA analysis
- Biometrics
- Disaster Victim Identification
- Fingerprints and Facial recognition
- Border Control
- Counterfeit currency and security documents

Capacity Building and Training

- Training and Development
- Digital Curriculum Design and Operations

Command and Co-ordination

- Operations Coordination, Planning and Support

INTERPOL

- Communication Assistance and Information Management
- Critical Regional Operations Languages
- Global Outreach Support and Regional assistance
  - Coordination of Regional Activities and Support to NCBs
- Criminal Analysis, Intelligence Analysis and Fusion
  - Criminal-related data and activities information collection, analysis and interpretation
  - Open-source intelligence and analysis

-----