TEXT OF RESOLUTION

HAVING NOTED once again that the problem of juvenile delinquency is extremely serious in a number of countries,

The ICPO-Interpol General Assembly, meeting in Washington from 10th to 15th October 1960 at its 29th session:

CONSIDERS that the Organization should bear this problem constantly in mind;

CONSEQUENTLY ASKS the Secretary General to prepare a report on the conditions under which group juvenile delinquency emerges and flourishes and on the appropriate means to suppress it, for a coming session of the General Assembly.
