Arrangement on Co-operation between

the International Criminal Police Organization-INTERPOL

and

the United Nations

in relation to the United Nations Security Council Sanctions Committees Supplementary to the Cooperation Agreement between the International Criminal Police Organization-INTERPOL
and the United Nations
Whereas the International Criminal Police Organization-INTERPOL ("INTERPOL"), and the United Nations, collectively referred to as the "Parties", have undertaken to cooperate to respond to the needs of the international community in the face of both national and transnational crime,

Whereas on 8 July 1997, the Parties concluded a Cooperation Agreement (the "Cooperation Agreement"), pursuant to Article 9 of which the Parties may, if necessary, enter into supplementary arrangements for the implementation of the Cooperation Agreement,

Recalling the exchange of letters of 8 December 2005 and 5 January 2006 between Parties, supplementing the Cooperation Agreement, prepared pursuant to United Nations Security Council Resolution 1617 (2005), which requested the Secretary-General of the United Nations to "take the necessary steps to increase cooperation between the United Nations and INTERPOL in order to provide the Committee established by Security Council Resolution 1267 (1999) with better tools to fulfil its mandate more effectively";

Recalling the exchange of letters of 28 and 29 December 2006 between the Parties, supplementing the Cooperation Agreement, prepared pursuant to Security Council Resolution 1699 (2006), in which the Security Council welcomed the constructive role that INTERPOL had played to help the 1267 Committee fulfil its mandate through the creation of the INTERPOL-United Nations Security Council Special Notices; noted that such cooperation with INTERPOL could also benefit the other sanctions committees - further noting that each committee might come up with its own conclusion in this regard; and requested the Secretary-General to take the necessary steps to increase cooperation between the United Nations and INTERPOL in order to provide the other sanctions committees with better tools, to fulfil their mandates more effectively;

Recalling Resolution No. AG-2005-RES-05 (Berlin, 2005) and Resolution No. AG-2006-RES-22 (Rio de Janeiro, 2006) of INTERPOL General Assembly which requested the Secretary General of INTERPOL to take the necessary steps to increase cooperation between the United Nations and INTERPOL in relation to the United Nations Security Council Sanctions Committees,

Considering that enhanced procedures for the issuance and circulation of INTERPOL-United Nations Security Council Special Notices and the provision of access by the sanctions committees and their expert monitoring groups to INTERPOL’s telecommunications network and databases, may provide the sanctions committees with better tools, to fulfil their mandates more effectively, and to give Member States better optional tools to implement those measures,

Now, for the purposes of enhancing this cooperation and in further fulfilment of the aims of the Cooperation Agreement and the above-mentioned exchanges of letters, INTERPOL and the United Nations Secretariat hereby agree as follows:
SECTION 1

PURPOSE

1.1 The purpose of the present Supplementary Arrangement is to detail the areas of cooperation between the Parties in relation to the provision of optional tools by INTERPOL, in accordance with its mandate, to United Nations Security Council Sanctions Committees ("the Committees") and their expert monitoring groups to assist them in fulfilling their mandates, including (i) the exchange of information; (ii) the issuance and circulation of INTERPOL-UN Security Council Special Notices; and (iii) access to INTERPOL’s telecommunications network and databases.

1.2 The present Supplementary Arrangement is further to, and without prejudice to, the Cooperation Agreement, the exchanges of letters of 8 December 2005 and 5 January 2006, and 28 and 29 December 2006 between the United Nations and INTERPOL, and the Revised Action Plan for INTERPOL United Nations Security Council Special Notices, which are all supplemental to the Cooperation Agreement.

SECTION 2

2.3 The provision of information by each Party shall be in accordance with the relevant regulations and rules applicable to each Party.

2.4 When providing information, each Party shall ensure that such information is accurate, and relevant at the time it is provided. Prior to using any information provided by one Party, the other Party shall check with the providing Party that the information is still accurate and relevant.

2.5 Pursuant to the exchange of letters of 28 and 29 December 2006 between the Parties, the procedures for requesting information shall be agreed upon by INTERPOL and the United Nations Secretariat, in consultation with the Committees and or their expert monitoring groups.
SECTION 3

ISSUANCE AND CIRCULATION OF
INTERPOL – UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL SPECIAL NOTICES

3.2 Such co-operation shall be in accordance with the provisions of the exchanges of letters of 8 December 2005 and 5 January 2006, and 28 and 29 December 2006 between the United Nations and INTERPOL, supplemental to the Cooperation Agreement.

3.3 Pursuant to the exchange of letters of 28 and 29 December 2006 between the Parties, the procedures by which the Committees shall submit requests for the issuance and circulation of INTERPOL-United Nations Special Notices shall be agreed upon by the United Nations Secretariat and INTERPOL in consultation with the relevant Committees.

SECTION 4

In particular, UNDPA shall be entitled to:

(i) use the INTERPOL telecommunications network to request INTERPOL’s General Secretariat to issue and circulate INTERPOL – United Nations Security Council Special Notices upon the request of the Committees;

(ii) consult INTERPOL’s databases for information on individuals subject to United Nations Security Council sanctions regimes or who are suspected of violating the Security Council’s relevant sanctions measures so as to improve the quality of information included in the lists of the Committees.
4.2 The terms and conditions under which UNDPA shall have direct access to and use of INTERPOL’s police information system are specified in the Annex to the present Arrangement.

4.3 Pursuant to the exchange of letters of 28 and 29 December 2006 between the Parties, the procedures for accessing INTERPOL’s police information system shall be agreed upon by the INTERPOL and the United Nations Secretariat, in consultation with the Committees and or their expert monitoring groups.

This provision shall extend, inter alia, to claims and liability in the nature of workmen’s compensation and liability arising out of the use of copyrighted material or other intellectual property by either Party, its officials, employees, agents or contractors.
