

Technological Competencies

Description of each level:

- No Skills: the candidate has no experience or knowledge on the specific tool, software or product
- Beginner: the candidate has started to learn the use of the tool, is able to work only on the basic features.
- Intermediate: the candidate has experience using the tool in the working environment and is able to use it for the daily tasks without supervision or external support
- Advanced: the candidate is well versed in the use of the tool, is able to perform complex functions in the tool, proposes the use of new features aiming at bringing more efficiency and is able to train others in the tool.