TEXT OF RESOLUTION

AFTER STUDYING AND DISCUSSING Reports No.6 and 6a on "The evolution of juvenile delinquency during 1968 and 1969", submitted by the General Secretariat,

The ICPO-INTERPOL General Assembly, meeting in Brussels from 5th to 10th October 1970 at its 39th session:

REAFFIRMS the principles and RENEWS the recommendations contained in the resolutions on the subject adopted by the General Assembly, notably at its 36th and 37th sessions (Kyoto, 1967, and Tehran, 1968);

AMENDS the resolution adopted at the 36th session (Kyoto, 1967) as follows:

"DECIDES to urge all countries to submit detailed reports on the behaviour of juvenile and adolescents (serious offences, sexual excesses, use of drugs and psychotropic substances, vagrancy, etc.) and on the method used to prevent, detect and control juvenile delinquency, every four years and at least six months before the General Assembly session;

ASKS the Secretary General to examine all the various aspects of the youth problem and select those which need to be studied in depth by INTERPOL, notably the international phenomena of juvenile vagrancy and the individual and collective behaviour of young people."
