TEXT OF RESOLUTION

NOTING with satisfaction the interest expressed by the United Nations Second World Congress for the prevention of crime and the treatment of delinquents in the report entitled "Special police departments for the prevention of juvenile delinquency" which was submitted by the ICPO Secretary General,

The ICPO-Interpol General Assembly, meeting in Washington from 10th to 15th October 1960 at its 29th session:

CONSIDERS nevertheless that the reservation expressed by the above Congress in the recommendation with regard to the fingerprinting of juvenile delinquents could have serious consequences;

CONSEQUENTLY INVITES the Secretary General to submit a report on this subject to a future session of the General Assembly.
