PREAMBLE

- (1) The Staff Regulations set out the internal provisions governing the administration of the officials of INTERPOL. They embody their fundamental conditions of employment, duties and rights, in accordance with international civil service principles.
- (2) With due respect for the Organization's Constitution and the present Regulations, the Secretary General shall submit a set of Staff Rules to the Executive Committee for approval. The Secretary General shall issue any Staff Instructions required by the present Regulations and the Staff Rules or that he considers necessary to complete or construe specific provisions. He shall take decisions on individual cases in application of the present Regulations, the Staff Rules, and Staff Instructions.
- (3) The present Regulations and the Staff Rules shall apply to the officials of the ICPO-INTERPOL, hereinafter referred to as "the officials of the Organization" as defined below except as may otherwise be provided:
  - (a) the Secretary General, who is the Organization's chief official,
  - (b) persons seconded to the Organization by their national administrations, and hereinafter referred to as "seconded officials",
  - (c) persons under contract employed by the Organization and hereinafter referred to as "officials under contract".

CHAPTER 1:
DUTIES, OBLIGATIONS AND PRIVILEGES

Regulation 1.1: Powers of command

- (1) The officials of the Organization shall be subject to the authority of the Secretary General who shall assign them their functions with the interests of the smooth operation of the Organization in view, taking account of their aptitudes, qualifications and experience, as well as of service requirements. They shall be responsible to the Secretary General in the performance of their functions. They shall observe the present Regulations, the Staff Rules and any Staff Instructions issued by the Secretary General, including any amendments which may be made to these texts.

- (2) The Secretary General may delegate such of his powers as he considers necessary for the effective implementation of the present Regulations and the Staff Rules to any official of the Organization. The list of those officials as well as the rules pertaining to delegations of powers will be laid down in a Staff Instruction.
- (3) Superiors shall exercise their authority in the name of the Secretary General. They shall set an example and offer guidance to the persons placed under their responsibility. They shall be impartial, objective and fair to their subordinates. The latter are entitled to express their views on the work they are given to perform and for which they are answerable to their immediate superiors, it being understood that they must, on the one hand, advise and assist their superiors and, on the other hand, comply with all decisions taken and obey the instructions they receive in connection with their official functions. Instructions are not decisions on individual cases as understood in the present Regulations and in the Staff Rules.

Regulation 1.2: International responsibility

- (1) The officials of the Organization are international officials and, as such, their responsibilities are not national but exclusively international. By accepting appointment, they pledge themselves to discharge their functions and to regulate their conduct with the interests of the Organization alone in view.
- (2) In the performance of their functions within the Organization, officials of the Organization shall not seek or accept any instructions from any government or from any authority external to the Organization. They may not represent a government or a national administration.

Rule 1.2.1: Relations with governments and national administrations

- (1) In accordance with Regulation 1.2(2), an official may not exercise the functions of representative, delegate or observer of a government or a national administration. However, in exceptional cases and at the express written request of the government or national administration concerned, the Secretary General may authorize the temporary suspension of the secondment of a seconded official so that he may carry out a mission his government or national administration wishes to assign to him. As soon as a seconded official learns that his government or his administration intends to ask the Secretary General to suspend his secondment temporarily, he shall inform the human resources department, via his immediate superior.

- (2) The obligations of the official concerned towards the Organization shall be suspended for the duration of the suspension of his secondment, insofar as this is necessary to allow him to carry out the mission for the purpose of which the Secretary General has accepted suspension of the secondment. The Organization's obligations towards the official concerned shall also be suspended for the duration of the period of suspension of secondment.
- (3) The rules pertaining to the application of these provisions shall be laid down in a Staff Instruction.

Rule 1.2.2: Conflicts of obligations

- (1) In application of Regulation 1.2(1), if, during his period of appointment with the Organization and by reason of links he has maintained with the authorities of the State that seconded him, a seconded official is duty-bound either to perform an act contrary to the obligations deriving from the terms of his declaration of loyalty or from the provisions of the Staff Regulations, the present Rules or the Staff Instructions, or not to perform an act which he ought to perform by virtue of those obligations, the official concerned must, before acting or refraining from acting, depending on the case, immediately inform the Secretary General of the situation.
- (2) Should the Secretary General consider that there is indeed a conflict between the obligations deriving from links maintained between the official concerned and the authorities of the State that seconded him on the one hand and, on the other hand, the obligations incumbent upon the official concerned as a result of his appointment within the Organization, he shall approach the authorities concerned with a view to finding a solution in conformity with the Organization's interests. Should it be impossible to find an appropriate solution within a reasonable period of time, the Secretary General may terminate the appointment of the official concerned, in conformity with Regulation 11.1(3,h).

Regulation 1.3: Conduct

- (1) Officials of the Organization shall conduct themselves under all circumstances in a manner befitting their status as international officials. They are not expected to give up their national sentiments, or their religious, political or philosophical convictions, but they shall at all times proceed with the reserve and tact incumbent upon them by reason of their international status.
- (2) Officials of the Organization shall not engage in any political or other activity that could be incompatible with the performance of their functions within the Organization, or could involve the moral or material responsibility of the Organization, without the prior authorization of the Secretary General.
- (3) Officials of the Organization shall refrain from any action which may reflect adversely upon their international status or upon the integrity, independence, impartiality or exemplarity of conduct required by the dignity of their functions. Only the Secretary General is empowered to make a public pronouncement on the Organization's general policy. The Staff Rules shall define the extent to which officials of the Organization other than the Secretary General may make a public pronouncement on other matters concerning the Organization.
- (4) Officials of the Organization shall not hold any other post or engage in any paid outside activity without the prior authorization of the Secretary General.
- (5) Officials of the Organization shall not accept any personal honour, decoration, favour, gift or remuneration from any government or other private or public source external to the Organization without the prior authorization from the Secretary General. However, they may accept gifts or remunerations on behalf of the Organization. Further specific exceptions may be laid down in the Staff Rules.
- (6) Officials of the Organization shall not take or attempt to take undue advantage of their position as officials of the Organization to gain personal benefit.
- (7) The Secretary General shall establish, in a Staff Instruction, procedures whereby officials of the Organization may seek, in confidence, clarification as to whether proposed action would conflict with their status as international civil servants.

Rule 1.3.1: Political activities and membership of associations

- (1) Regulation 1.3(2) shall not hinder officials from:
  - (a) exercising their voting rights;
  - (b) joining a political party or an association, in conformity with the applicable provisions of local law, provided that such membership does not imply any action or obligation on their part contrary to the provisions of the above-mentioned Regulation.
- (2) In application of Regulation 1.3(2), an official who becomes a candidate for a political office at national level, or is elected at regional level, shall resign from the Organization in conformity with Regulation 11.3 and Rule 11.3.1. An official of the Organization who becomes candidate for a political office at regional or local level, or is elected at local level, shall at once inform the Secretary General who shall decide whether the official should resign or may be granted part-time or unpaid leave.
- (3) The professional interests of the officials of the Organization shall be defended exclusively by the Staff Committee(s) of the Organization, in conformity with the provisions of Regulation 9.2(1) and the relevant provisions of Chapter 9 of the present Rules, without prejudice to application of Rule 9.2.14. This shall not hinder the officials of the Organization from being members of trade unions or professional Organizations for international civil servants, it being understood that such bodies have no institutional role within the Organization.

Rule 1.3.2: Relations with the press

- (1) The term “press” shall include the written, oral and audiovisual press as well as the authors of any written or photographic document intended for public release.
- (2) In application of Regulation 1.3(3), any official of the Organization invited to make any form of communication to the press shall seek prior authorization from their immediate superior and the head of the communications department. They shall decide on the necessity of the interview and on the subjects to be discussed. The same procedure shall apply prior to the departure of any official on mission, whether a communication to the press is foreseen or not.
- (3) The official must subsequently report to the head of the communications department on the content of any communication made to the press.

Rule 1.3.3: Outside activities and interests

- (1) Outside activities, as referred to in Regulation 1.3(4), shall in particular include commercial activities.
- (2) Any official who has any financial interest in any business concern with which he may be required, directly or indirectly, to have official dealings on behalf of the Organization shall at once disclose the nature and extent of that interest to the Secretary General.

Rule 1.3.4: Honours, decorations, remunerations and gifts

- (1) Notwithstanding Regulation 1.3(5), an official may, without informing the Secretary General, accept any object of insignificant or no commercial value offered to him as a souvenir, commemorative item or courtesy gift.
- (2) Notwithstanding Regulation 1.3(5), an official may accept honours or decorations for services he rendered before being appointed as one of the officials of the Organization.
- (3) The rules pertaining to any gifts or remunerations accepted by an official on behalf of the Organization shall be laid down in a Staff Instruction.

Rule 1.3.5: Use of property and assets

- (1) Officials shall use the property and assets of the Organization only for official purposes and shall exercise reasonable care when utilizing such property and assets.
- (2) An official may however be authorized, in a Staff Instruction, to use such property and assets for private purposes, under certain conditions.

Rule 1.3.6: Authorization

- (1) Requests for authorization under Regulation 1.3 shall be made in writing and transmitted through the established channels.
- (2) The Secretary General shall answer a request for authorization within 10 working days of the submission of the said request. Such authorization shall be granted in writing for a specified period and may be renewed. It may also be revoked at any time, if circumstances warrant.

Regulation 1.4: Use of information

- (1) Officials of the Organization are bound to professional secrecy with regard to all matters relating to the activities of the Organization. They shall not communicate to any person any unpublished information acquired by them nor shall they publish or have published, individually or with other persons, any text relating to the Organization, except in the course of their duties or with prior authorization from the Secretary General.
- (2) These obligations shall continue to be binding on officials of the Organization after their cessation of service. However, these obligations shall not prevent former seconded officials from fulfilling their obligations to their national administrations.

Regulation 1.5: Declaration of loyalty

- (1) On taking up his post, the Secretary General shall make and sign the following declaration before the Executive Committee:

“I solemnly undertake to exercise in all loyalty, discretion and conscience the functions entrusted to me as Secretary General of the ICPO-INTERPOL, to discharge these functions and regulate my conduct with the interests of the Organization alone in view, not to seek or accept instructions in regard to the performance of my duties from any government or any authority external to the Organization, and under all circumstances to uphold the provisions governing the operation of the Organization”.

- (2) On taking up their posts, seconded officials shall sign the following declaration:

“I, the undersigned, declare that I have read the letter of approval of secondment accompanied by the Staff Regulations and Rules sent to my national administration and appointing me as an official of the ICPO-INTERPOL, and I undertake to abide by the conditions of employment applicable to my post within the Organization.

I solemnly undertake to exercise in all loyalty, discretion and conscience the functions entrusted to me as an international official of the ICPO-INTERPOL, to discharge these functions and regulate my conduct with the interests of the Organization alone in view, and not to seek or accept instructions from any government or any authority external to the Organization in regard to the performance of my duties within the Organization.

I declare that I shall not disclose to any unauthorized person any information which may come to my knowledge in the performance of my functions as an official of the ICPO-INTERPOL, unless such disclosure constitutes part of my duties or has been duly authorized by the Secretary General. I further undertake to inform the Secretary General immediately of any conflict that may arise between the obligations deriving from links I have maintained with the authorities of the State which seconded me on the one hand and, on the other hand, the obligations incumbent upon me as a result of my appointment within the ICPO-INTERPOL.”

- (3) On taking up their posts, officials under contract shall sign the following declaration:

“I solemnly undertake to exercise in all loyalty, discretion and conscience the functions entrusted to me as an international official of the ICPO-INTERPOL, to discharge these functions and regulate my conduct with the interests of the Organization alone in view, and not to seek or accept instructions from any government or any authority external to the Organization in regard to the performance of my duties within the Organization. I declare that I shall not disclose to any unauthorized person any information which may come to my knowledge in the performance of my functions as an official of the ICPO-INTERPOL, unless such disclosure constitutes part of my duties or has been duly authorized by the Secretary General.”

- (4) If an official of the Organization refuses to sign the declaration of loyalty, or wishes to postpone its signature, his appointment shall be considered null and void.

Regulation 1.6: Intellectual property

All intellectual property rights, including copyright and patent rights, attaching to any work produced by an official in the course of his official duties and relating to the activity of the Organization, shall be vested in the Organization which alone shall hold all the relevant rights.

Regulation 1.7: Information required of officials of the Organization

- (1) Any official of the Organization who becomes a defendant in legal proceedings likely to compromise the dignity of his functions shall immediately inform the Secretary General, in conformity with the provisions of the Staff Rules.

- (2) The Secretary General may, at any moment, require an official of the Organization to provide, or may have enquiries made to obtain:
- (a) information concerning actions prior to and subsequent to the official's appointment and relating to his aptitude, integrity and conduct;
  - (b) information concerning the manner in which he exercises his functions as an official of the Organization;
  - (c) information required for the management or administration of the staff, including information of a personal nature.
- (3) The Staff Rules may make it compulsory for officials of the Organization to provide certain of the items of information mentioned in (2) above.
- (4) A confidential, personal file shall be established for each official of the Organization. The content, establishment procedure and maintenance of this file shall be detailed in the Staff Rules. In accordance with the Staff Rules, each official of the Organization shall be entitled to:
- (a) consult his personal file;
  - (b) make copies of any documents concerning him;
  - (c) request that certain items of information be supplemented, corrected or deleted.

Rule 1.7.1: Information required of officials

- (1) Officials are required to inform the human resources department, in writing and at the earliest opportunity, of any changes to their status with respect to the Staff Regulations, the present Rules and the Staff Instructions and to provide all relevant evidence of the change. This provision applies in particular to changes in nationality and changes in an official's personal or family status which could have a pecuniary effect on his allowances or internal tax, inter alia.
- (2) Any official participating in the process of reaching or reviewing an administrative decision affecting the status or entitlements of an official to whom he is closely related (i.e. parents, children, brother or sister, or related by marriage, or cohabiting with that official) or any official holding a post which is superior or subordinate in the line of authority to an official to whom he is closely related shall make his situation known to the human resources department. Such information is required pursuant to Regulation 1.7(2,c), for the purpose of application by the Organization of the Staff Regulations, the present Rules and the Staff Instructions, in particular when appropriate Rules 3.3.3, 3.3.4, 6.2.1 and 10.2.6.

- (3) Should an official omit to supply such information or supply inaccurate information, either intentionally or through gross negligence, in violation of the provisions of the Staff Regulations, the present Rules or Staff Instructions, he may be liable to application of the disciplinary procedure.

Rule 1.7.2: Content of a personal file

- (1) The personal file established for each official, under the terms of Regulation 1.7(4), shall contain:
  - (a) the personal information required for the management and administration of the career of the official concerned;
  - (b) the documents relating to his recruitment and appointment;
  - (c) the documents relating to his advancement, transfers and promotions;
  - (d) the official documents and assessment reports concerning his competence and conduct during service, together with any comments made by the official concerned with regard to these documents and reports;
  - (e) the official documents relating to his leave;
  - (f) any other documents concerning any official measures taken with regard to the official concerned.
- (2) No mention of the political, philosophical or religious convictions of an official may appear in his personal file.
- (3) The specific structure of the file shall be laid down in a Staff Instruction.

Rule 1.7.3: Administration of a personal file

- (1) Information contained in a personal file must:
  - (a) be communicated to the official prior to filing;
  - (b) remain confidential;
  - (c) be accurate and kept up to date.

- (2) The human resources department shall be responsible for the administration of personal files and, in particular, for recording the filing and destruction of each document contained in the file.
- (3) If data contained in a personal file is filed both electronically and on paper, for management reasons, the human resources department must ensure that the data is identical.

Rule 1.7.4: Retention period of a personal file

- (1) The personal file of an official of the Organization shall be destroyed 50 years after the date of his cessation of service.
- (2) The deletion of records of disciplinary measures may be made prior to the end of the retention period in accordance with Rule 12.3.3.

Rule 1.7.5: Access to a personal file

- (1) Every official has the right to access his personal file. Such requests should be made to the human resources department which must organize the consultation with the minimum delay.
- (2) Access to personal files shall also be granted to other officials who, within the strict limits of their functions, need to consult the said files in order to perform their tasks. A list of the positions concerned by this provision shall be laid down in a Staff Instruction. Officials who have had access to personal files are bound, outside the performance of their tasks, to respect the confidentiality of any information they may have acquired in this way.
- (3) Persons mentioned in Article II (6) of the Statute of the International Labour Organization Administrative Tribunal (ILOAT) who wish to consult a specific file shall submit a written request to the Secretary General who shall inform them, at the earliest opportunity, of the procedure to be followed.
- (4) The ILOAT, and any other administrative or judicial court or tribunal, may also write to the Secretary General asking for access to a personal file when the settlement of the case before them makes it necessary to consult the file concerned. In addition, any person responsible for defending the Organization shall be authorized to communicate to such courts or tribunals, or to any other person in whom powers are vested by the applicable law, the documents from the personal file which relate to a case before such courts or tribunals.

- (5) Personal files may only be consulted in the presence of a member of the human resources department.
- (6) Any person having right of access to a personal file may obtain copies of the documents that are of interest to him, in accordance with the procedure laid down in a Staff Instruction.

Rule 1.7.6: Rectification to information contained in a personal file

- (1) Any official may request the rectification, without delay, of inaccurate or obsolete information contained in his personal file.
- (2) The head of the human resources department may ask the official, if necessary, to produce the proof that the information concerned is not or no longer accurate or is obsolete. Failing that, the head of the human resources department shall decide, within 10 working days, on a case-by-case basis, whether the information concerned should be rectified, completed or deleted. The official shall be informed in writing of the decision taken and the request shall in any case be placed in the personal file.

Regulation 1.8: Privileges and immunities

- (1) Officials of the Organization shall enjoy the privileges, immunities and facilities to which they are entitled by virtue of the international agreements concluded by the Organization or by virtue of national legislation relating to this matter.
- (2) Privileges and immunities are granted to the officials of the Organization and former officials in the interests of the smooth operation of the Organization and not for their personal benefit. They do not excuse such officials from fulfilling their private obligations or from strict observance of the laws in force at their duty stations. In any case where these immunities could be invoked, the officials of the Organization shall immediately report to the Secretary General, who will decide whether they shall be waived. Similarly, in any case where the immunities granted to him could be invoked, the Secretary General shall report to the Executive Committee; the Committee will then decide whether they shall be waived.
- (3) The above-mentioned obligations also apply to former officials of the Organization to the extent that these privileges and immunities are still granted to them after cessation of their service.

Regulation 1.9: Professional protection

- (1) The Officials of the Organization shall be entitled to the protection of the Organization in the performance of their functions.
- (2) Officials of the Organization may therefore seek the assistance of the Organization to protect their material or non-material interests and those of their family where these interests have been harmed by actions directed against them by reason of their being an official of the Organization. The Secretary General shall decide on the type and extent of any assistance the Organization may bring to its officials.
- (3) The Organization shall indemnify an official of the Organization who has suffered material damage in the performance of his functions or by virtue of his position, provided the official is not responsible, either intentionally or through gross negligence, for the damage, and has not received or will not receive any other compensation. Insofar as the Organization compensates one of its officials for such damage, the official concerned shall subrogate the Organization in advance in respect of any rights or claims he may have against third parties.

Regulation 1.10: Civil liability

Any official or former official of the Organization who causes any damage whatsoever to the Organization, either intentionally or through gross negligence, may be required to make good the damage, in whole or in part. In order to obtain redress, the Organization may institute legal proceedings against him, in accordance with the law applicable to the dispute. This shall not prevent the Organization from instituting separate disciplinary proceedings against the official.

CHAPTER 2:
APPOINTMENT AND POSTING

Regulation 2.1: Recruitment

- (1) The officials of the Organization shall be recruited and appointed by the Secretary General in accordance with the provisions of the Organization's Constitution, of the present Regulations and of the Staff Rules, as well as in accordance with the applicable budgetary provisions.

- (2) Any vacancy for an unclassified post or a post classified in Grades 1 and 2 shall normally be brought to the notice of the Organization’s Member States in accordance with Regulation 2.1(5), except in cases referred to in Rule 2.1.3(3).
- (3) Each vacancy notice shall be drafted on the basis of the post description sheet, it being understood that the specific aspects of the post concerned shall also be taken into account. A Staff Instruction shall specify what a vacancy notice should indicate.

Rule 2.1.9: Travel expenses of applicants

The Organization shall provide partial or total reimbursement of reasonable travel expenses incurred by applicants as a consequence of their participation in the recruitment procedure.

Rule 2.1.10: Conditions prior to appointment

- (2) The procedure to be followed for fulfilment of the above-mentioned conditions will be laid down in a Staff Instruction.

Rule 2.1.11: Level of priority between applicants

- (1) If the application submitted by an internal applicant and that submitted by an external applicant are of equal value, both in terms of professional competencies and personal qualities, preference shall be given to the internal applicant.
- (2) Nationality may also be a criterion of choice between two external applicants or two internal applicants of equal merit.

Rule 2.1.12: Final selection

- (1) Once the recruitment procedure has been completed and the conditions mentioned in Rules 2.1.10 have been met, the Secretary General shall select one applicant, taking into account the assessment made by the Selection Panel and the criteria of Rule 2.1.11. The applicants not selected shall be informed of the decision in writing.
- (2) The appointment of an internal applicant shall constitute either a promotion or a transfer and be governed by Regulation 3.3 and Rules 3.3.1 and 3.3.2 or 3.3.3 depending on the case. The appointment of an external applicant shall be governed by Regulation 2.2 and Rule 2.2.1.

Regulation 2.2: Notification of conditions of employment of the officials of the Organization

- (1) The Executive Committee shall determine the Secretary General's conditions of employment and communicate them to him in writing.
- (2) The officials of the Organization shall be notified of their conditions of employment as follows:

- (4) In order to obtain, in the interests of the Organization, the secondment of a person from a national administration, the Secretary General may, by exercising his discretionary power, grant the person concerned special employment conditions as mentioned in (3,g) above, waiving certain provisions of the present Regulations and of the Staff Rules. However, the Secretary General may only grant such special conditions insofar as they are intended solely to allow the relevant administration or the person whose secondment is being considered to comply with the local laws applicable to the secondment and also provided that these special conditions do not undermine, in any way whatsoever, the basic principles, rights and obligations laid down in the present Regulations and in the Staff Rules.
- (5) No official of the Organization may claim any right or advantage that does not derive from his letter of approval of secondment or letter of appointment. A copy of the present Regulations and a copy of the Staff Rules shall be appended to the letter of approval of secondment and to the letter of appointment.

Rule 2.2.1: Letter of acceptance

- (1) In conformity with Regulation 2.2(2,b), a person whose appointment as an official under contract is being considered shall sign his letter of acceptance and send it to the Secretary General so that it reaches him as soon as possible and at the latest by the date on which his appointment becomes effective, failing which the letter of appointment shall be deemed null and void.
- (2) However, the Secretary General may decide to allow the person concerned to hand over his letter of acceptance on the day on which he effectively takes up his post. In that case, the appointment shall become effective on the date on which the person effectively takes up his post, and that date shall be substituted for the date specified in the letter of appointment.

Rule 2.2.2: Length of service

- (1) The commencement date for calculating length of service shall be the date on which an official effectively takes up his post.
- (2) Any periods of authorized leave shall be included for calculation of length of service, except as provided in Rules 8.2.8(3) and 8.2.9(3).
- (3) If a period of sick leave exceeds 90 calendar days, the length of service of the official concerned shall be reduced by that portion of the sick leave which extends beyond the first 90 calendar days. This provision shall not, however, apply in the event of sick leave owing to a work-related accident or to an occupational illness in which cases length of service is not affected by the absence.
- (4) Any official who has served within the Organization for a period of 25 years shall be entitled to an indemnity, the amount of which shall be specified by the Secretary General in a Staff Instruction.

Regulation 2.3: Duty station

All officials of the Organization shall be assigned to a specific duty station. The duty station of an official of the Organization is the place of regular performance of the official's functions.

Rule 2.3.1: Place of residence

An official of the Organization is bound to be ordinarily resident at a distance from his duty station that will not hamper him in the performance of his functions.

Rule 2.3.2: Teleworking

Teleworking, as defined in Staff Rule 8.1.7(2), shall not alter the duty station of the official.

Regulation 2.4: Position on salary scales

- (1) Upon appointment of an official of the Organization, the Secretary General shall decide on the step on which an official under contract holding a classified post shall be placed on the salary scale corresponding to his grade.
- (2) For that purpose, he shall take account of the consultative opinion expressed by the Joint Advancement Committee except in respect of officials whose position, under the terms of the Staff Rules, is not subject to consideration by that Committee.

Rule 2.4.1: Position on salary scale

- (1) Under Regulation 2.4(2) the Secretary General shall submit to the Joint Advancement Committee for approval a grid establishing the objective criteria to be used in deciding on which step all newly appointed officials under contract holding a classified post shall be placed.
- (2) The elements taken into account by the Secretary General in application of the above grid shall be recorded in the official's personal file.

Regulation 2.5: Probationary period

- (1) An official under contract shall be considered to be serving a probationary period for 12 months from the date on which his appointment with the Organization becomes effective.
- (2) During the probationary period, the Secretary General may, at any time, terminate the appointment by giving 1 month's notice. Similarly the official may, at any time, resign by giving 1 month's notice.
- (3) On completion of the probationary period, the Secretary General may decide as follows:
  - (a) to terminate the appointment of the official concerned by giving 1 month's notice, if he considers that it is not in the interests of the Organization to confirm the appointment;

(b) to extend the probationary period by a maximum period of 3 months, which shall not be renewable, in exceptional cases and with the consent of the official concerned;

(c) to confirm the appointment.

Rule 2.5.1: Probationary period

- (1) If it is envisaged to terminate the appointment of an official under contract during, or at the end of his probationary period, the official should first be given the chance to meet the level of performance required.
- (2) If the appointment of an official under contract has not been terminated during his probationary period, his superiors at all the levels concerned shall, before the expiry date of the probationary period, draft a report on his competence, work and conduct, and express an opinion as to the advisability of confirming his appointment, terminating it, or proposing to him that his probationary period be extended by a maximum period of 3 months. The official shall comment on this report.
- (3) The Secretary General's decision shall be notified to the official concerned in writing, and shall be communicated to him at the latest on expiry of his probationary period.
- (4) If the appointment of an official holding a classified post is confirmed, the Secretary General may decide either to maintain the official concerned on the step he was initially placed in, or, in exceptional circumstances to grant him one or more additional steps where justified. For officials under contract holding a classified post in Grade 3 or below, the decision shall be taken after consultation of the Joint Advancement Committee.
- (5) If the appointment is terminated, the decision shall specify the reasons for termination. The 1 month's notice shall run from the date of notification of the decision.
- (6) If the Secretary General's decision has not been communicated to the official under contract concerned on expiry of his probationary period, his appointment shall be deemed to have been confirmed, on the understanding that this does not relieve the Organization of its obligation to notify him of the Secretary General's decision at the earliest opportunity. If the Secretary General decides to terminate an official's appointment in such a situation, the decision must be taken in conformity with Regulation 11.1.
- (7) If the Secretary General decides to propose to the official concerned that the probationary period be extended, the decision shall specify the duration of the proposed extension and the reasons for the proposal; it shall further state that, from the date of notification of the proposal, the official concerned shall have 5 working days to consider and reply to the proposal and that, in the event of his refusal or failure to reply within the set time-period, his appointment shall be terminated and the notice period shall be deemed to run from the date of notification of the proposal. If the official concerned agrees to the extension of his probationary period, a new report shall be prepared before expiry of the supplementary probationary period and a new decision shall be taken in accordance with the procedure described in the above paragraphs. Under no circumstances may the probationary period be extended a second time.
- (8) An official whose probationary period has been extended by the period of notice given upon termination of his appointment or upon resignation may not, under any circumstances, claim that his appointment has been confirmed.
- (9) If an official under contract is absent on sick leave while serving his probationary period, and that the overall duration of his absence on sick leave is of more than 5 working days, that period shall be extended by the duration of the absence. If, however, the overall duration of his absence on sick leave is 20 working days or more, the Secretary General may terminate the appointment of the official concerned in conformity with Regulation 2.5(2) and with paragraphs (3) and (5) above. He may not, however, terminate the appointment of the official concerned if the absence on sick leave is the result of a work-related accident or an occupational illness.
- (10) In application of Regulation 2.5(1), if the overall duration of the contract does not exceed 12 months, the overall duration of the contract shall be deemed to be part of the probationary period. If an official on probationary period is appointed to a different post after a recruitment procedure, a new probationary period shall run from the date on which the new appointment becomes effective. The Secretary General may however decide to reduce the duration of the second probationary period, provided that the cumulated duration of both probationary periods is of at least 12 months.

CHAPTER 3:
EMPLOYMENT AND CHANGES IN SITUATION

Regulation 3.1: Duration of appointment

- (1) Officials under contract shall be appointed either for a fixed-term or for an indeterminate period. The Secretary General may decide either to extend a fixed-term appointment on one or more occasions for a further fixed-term, or to convert it to an indeterminate appointment, in conformity with the provisions of the Staff Rules.
- (2) Seconded officials shall be appointed for a fixed-term period, which the Secretary General may decide to extend. The cumulated length of both fixed-term periods shall in principle not go beyond 6 years. However, in exceptional circumstances, in the interest of the Organization, the Secretary General may decide to further extend such an appointment.
- (3) Under no circumstances may an official with a fixed-term appointment be entitled to claim its extension or its conversion to an indeterminate appointment.

Rule 3.1.1: Extensions and conversions of appointments

- (1) An official's short-term or fixed-term appointment shall terminate without prior notice on expiry of the period specified in the letter of approval of secondment or in the letter of appointment. However, the Secretary General shall inform the official concerned of his reasoned decision not to extend the appointment at the latest 2 months before the expiry of that period. The time limit of 2 months shall be reduced to 2 weeks for short-term appointments.
- (2) In application of Regulation 3.1(2), the Secretary General may propose to the authorities of a State which has seconded an official that the period of secondment be extended for a further fixed-term. If the authorities concerned give their approval, the Secretary General's proposal, and the acceptance of that proposal, shall constitute an amendment to the letter of approval of secondment and shall be communicated to the official concerned. If the authorities concerned make a counter-proposal, the Secretary General shall:
  - (a) either give his approval, in which case the counter-proposal and the Secretary General's approval shall constitute an amendment to the letter of approval of secondment of the official concerned;

- (b) or reject the counter-proposal, in which case the secondment shall terminate in conformity with paragraph (1) above.

If the authorities reject the proposal of extension, the secondment shall terminate in conformity with paragraph (1) above.

In either case, the seconded official concerned shall be informed, without delay, of the steps taken and of their outcome.

- (3) In application of Regulation 3.1(1), the Secretary General may propose to an official under contract that his appointment be extended or converted into another type of appointment. If the official under contract accepts, the Secretary General's proposal and the official's acceptance shall constitute an amendment to the employment agreement. If the official concerned rejects the proposal, his appointment shall terminate in conformity with paragraph (1) above.
- (4) The appointment of an official under contract shall be converted into an indeterminate appointment if the post held by the official is considered by the Organization to be permanent and the conduct and performance of duties of the official since he took up his post have constantly been satisfactory.

Regulation 3.2: Appraisal and advancement

- (1) Superiors shall regularly appraise the work and conduct of the officials placed under their authority. The procedure for preparing periodic assessment reports shall be laid down in the Staff Rules.
- (2) The Secretary General shall decide on the advancement of officials under contract holding a classified post within the salary scales applicable to their grades on the basis of periodic assessment reports. Prior to his decision, he shall seek the consultative opinion of the Joint Advancement Committee, except in respect of officials whose position, under the terms of the Staff Rules, is not subject to consideration by that Committee.

Rule 3.2.1: Advancement

- (1) Under Regulation 3.2(2), the Secretary General shall not consult the Joint Advancement Committee when deciding on the advancement of officials under contract holding a post classified in Grade 1 or 2. For officials under contract holding posts classified in Grades 3 to 10, the Secretary General shall consult the Joint Advancement Committee for their opinion when deciding on a two-step advancement or on a deferment of the date of their advancement.

- (2) Decisions on the advancement of officials under contract holding a classified post within the salary scales applicable to their grade shall be taken every two years, except for officials in steps 12 and 13 for whom the interval shall be three years. The relevant salary scales are defined in Appendix 1 to the present Rules.
- (3) Based on the recommendations of an official's superiors, the Secretary General may decide:
  - (a) to grant an official an advancement of one step in his grade for satisfactory service; or
  - (b) to grant an official an advancement of two steps in his grade for particularly meritorious or outstanding work accomplished throughout the entire period elapsed since the last decision on his advancement; or
  - (c) to defer by up to twelve months the date of advancement of an official whose work is not considered to be satisfactory.
- (4) For the award of salary increments, satisfactory service shall be defined as satisfactory performance and conduct of officials in the post to which they have been assigned, as appraised by their superiors. For officials in steps 12 and 13, the award of salary increments shall be subject to 3 consecutive outstanding reports.
- (5) Salary increments shall be effective from the first day of the month in which the official has completed the required period of service; however, this period may be shortened when the official is promoted in accordance with the provisions of Regulation 3.3 or the advancement of the official is deferred in accordance with (3,c) above or in application of a disciplinary measure. This period may also be extended in application of Rules 8.2.8(5) and 8.2.9(6).
- (6) Any decision on advancement taken by the Secretary General shall be notified to the official under contract concerned and communicated to his immediate superior. Such decisions shall be centralized by the human resources department.

Rule 3.2.2: Periodic assessment reports

- (1) In application of Regulation 3.2(1), assessment reports shall be prepared for each official at least once a year. For officials holding an unclassified post or on short-term appointments, a simplified assessment procedure shall be applied.
- (2) The performance of each official shall be appraised on a form prescribed by the Secretary General. Periodic assessment reports shall include a self-assessment made by the official and an assessment drafted by the official's immediate superior covering the official's activity during the period since the drafting of the previous assessment report. They shall be based on objectives and other assessment criteria established by the superior after consultation of the official at the beginning of the reference period.

- (3) With a view to drafting his assessment report, the official's immediate superior shall have an interview with the official. Once the assessment report has been drafted by the official's immediate superior, it shall be communicated to the official prior to being forwarded to his superiors at all the levels concerned, any of whom may add observations. After all the official's superiors have completed the assessment report, it shall once more be communicated to the official.
- (4) At any stage where the official receives communication of the assessment report, he shall sign the report and may, if he so wishes, append a statement relating to any part of the report which he contests. Such a statement must be made within a week from the date on which the official received communication of the report. It shall be placed in the official's personal file in the same way as the report itself.
- (5) Periodic assessment reports shall be centralized by the human resources department and filed in the official's personal file. Reports concerning officials under contract classified below Grade 2 shall be brought to the attention of the Joint Advancement Committee whenever a decision on the advancement of the official concerned is to be taken.
- (6) The provisions of the present Rule shall not prevent the activity and conduct of an official from being the subject of written memoranda in the interval between two assessment reports. Such memoranda shall be communicated to the official who shall be given the opportunity to comment on them.

Rule 3.2.3: Bonuses

- (1) Within the limits of the budget allocation for that purpose, the Secretary General, exercising his discretionary power, may decide to grant a bonus:

- (2) The maximum amount of the bonus, the relevant procedure and the conditions under which it may be granted, individually or collectively, shall be determined in a Staff Instruction.

Rule 3.2.4: Unsatisfactory work

- (1) Any official, whether seconded or under contract, whose work is appraised as unsatisfactory by his superiors, during his annual assessment or in the interval between two annual assessments, shall be notified in writing of such a fact and be given an appropriate period of time to remedy the situation.
- (2) After prior notification, failure by an official to perform the functions inherent in the post to which he is assigned in a satisfactory manner, whether due to the quality of his work or to the relations he maintains with other officials, may result:
  - (a) in the transfer with downgrading of the official if a post better suited to his capabilities is vacant; or
  - (b) in the termination of the official's appointment in accordance with Regulation 11.1(3,a).

Regulation 3.3: Promotion, transfer and temporary assignment

- (1) The Secretary General may decide, within the general classification of posts, to promote officials of the Organization. Promotion shall mean the assignment of an official to a post of higher grade following a competition or a reclassification procedure. In exceptional cases, in the interests of the Organization, the Secretary General may promote an official of the Organization without competition.
- (2) Any official shall be entitled to promotion as a result of the reclassification of the post to which he is assigned, provided he has the required qualifications and his performance is satisfactory. Without prejudice to the recruitment of fresh talent, officials shall be given reasonable promotion possibilities.
- (3) The Secretary General may transfer any official of the Organization from one post to another. Transfer shall mean the assignment of an official to another post without promotion. A transfer may be effected without recourse to a competition.
- (4) Any official may be transferred whenever the interests of the Organization so require. Any official may at any time request consideration for transfer in his own interest.

- (5) If so instructed by the Secretary General in order to meet service requirements, an official of the Organization shall accept any temporary assignment to a post other than that specified in his employment agreement. The conditions governing salary supplements payable as a result of temporary assignments, as well as the payment arrangements for such supplements, shall be detailed in the Staff Rules.

- (6) The transfer, promotion or temporary assignment of a seconded official shall be notified to that official's national administration without delay.

Rule 3.3.1: Salary on Promotion

The Secretary General may decide to grant additional steps to an official who has been promoted to take into account the aptitudes, qualifications and experience of the official concerned at the post to which he has been promoted.
- (2) The date of the periodical salary increment in the higher grade shall be the anniversary date of the promotion.

Rule 3.3.2: Fixed-term promotion

An official under contract holding an indeterminate appointment and who is promoted to a post advertised for a fixed-term period shall retain his indeterminate appointment. However, at the end of this fixed-term promotion, unless the latter is renewed or converted into an indeterminate appointment, the official concerned shall return to the grade held prior to promotion and shall be granted an advancement in steps equivalent to that which he would have received had he not been promoted.

Rule 3.3.3: Transfer

- (1) Officials of the Organization must conform to any transfer decision taken by the Secretary General in application of Regulation 3.3(3). If an official of the Organization thus transferred does not take up his new post, the Secretary General may terminate his appointment in conformity with Regulation 11.1(2,b).

- (2) However, the specific, written consent of the official concerned shall be required if the transfer decision is taken following:

- (3) The Secretary General's decision on whether or not to transfer an official shall be based on the interests of the Organization. Whenever a transfer involves a change in functions, the Secretary General shall take account of the competence and qualifications of the official concerned and ensure that he has the necessary aptitudes to perform his new functions. If a transfer involves a change in duty station, the Secretary General shall, as far as possible, take into account the personal situation of any of the officials of the Organization whose transfer could be considered.

(4) Rule 3.3.3(4) abrogated.

- (5) If a transfer within a given duty station involves downgrading, the official concerned shall continue to receive, on a personal basis, the gross monthly salary corresponding to the grade and step of his previous post. If a transfer involving downgrading also involves a change of duty station, the official concerned shall receive, on a personal basis, the gross monthly salary corresponding to the grade and step of his previous post in the salary scale of the duty station to which he has been transferred.

(5B) The provisions of Rule 3.3.3(5) above do not apply in the following cases:

- (b) a transfer resulting from the official's application in a recruitment procedure or from the official's request for a transfer in his own interest.

- (6) A transfer, regardless of whether it requires the consent of the transferred official or not, shall constitute an amendment to his employment agreement. The transfer decision shall be notified in writing to the official concerned and shall be communicated to his immediate superior. The decision shall list the changes in the situation of the official concerned, the reasons for the transfer, and the date on which it shall become effective. There shall be a reasonable period of time between the date of notification of the transfer decision and its entry into force.
- (7) When an official under contract is transferred, the decision on his advancement within the salary scale applicable to his grade shall be taken at the time it would have been had he not been transferred.

Rule 3.3.4: Temporary assignments

- (1) In conformity with Article 3.3(5), officials may be called on to accept a temporary assignment for a period of up to 12 months, renewable by periods of a maximum of 12 months. However, the temporary assignment may not exceed the duration of the project to which the post is attached, or the duration of the incumbent's absence for parental leave within the meaning of Rule 8.2.7, sick leave, or unpaid leave.
- (2) A salary supplement shall be paid to an official under contract who is temporarily assigned to the duties and responsibilities of a post classified in a higher grade. The amount of such a supplement shall be equivalent to the gross salary increase which the official would have received had he been promoted to the post to which he is temporarily assigned. Should the official only be assigned part of the duties and responsibilities attached to the post, the salary supplement shall be adjusted accordingly.
- (3) The salary supplement shall remain unchanged for a period of up to 12 months, depending on the length of the assignment, after which it may be reviewed to take into account any change in the salary scales or the award of salary increments to the official in his regular post.

Regulation 3.4: Professional training

  - (c) whether this training is to be provided during or outside working hours.
- (4) If the cost of professional training is met by the Organization and if the training is provided during working hours, the official concerned may not refuse to undergo such training.
- (5) In any case, on successful completion of a training course determined in the interests of the Organization and approved by the official's immediate superior, the official shall be entitled to 25% of the cost of such a course. - (2) If an official is reinstated, his services shall be considered as having been continuous. For that purpose, the interval between cessation of service and reinstatement shall be considered as unpaid leave and the official shall return to the Organization any payment made to him at the time of cessation of service.
- (3) If an official is reappointed, the rules on new appointments laid down in Chapter 2 of the Staff Regulations and present Rules shall apply.
- (4) If a staff member who was not initially subject to the Staff Regulations is subsequently recruited as an official of the Organization, the provisions of the present Rules relating to reinstatement shall not apply. A shift-rotation schedule determines both the shift working hours and the rotation of officials on each shift.

(2) Superiors are responsible for establishing shift-rotation schedules based on the workload of their department.

(3) With a view to establishing shift-rotation schedules, superiors shall apply the following rules:

- (3) For officials performing shift work, overtime shall mean work performed in addition to the regular shift, the modalities of which shall be determined in a Staff Instruction.
- (4) The time spent by an official travelling to his place of duty and back shall not be considered as overtime.

- (5) Unless exceptional service needs so require, an official shall not work more than 40 hours of overtime during one month.
- (6) The official's superior having requested the overtime to be worked shall be responsible for the verification and recording of the overtime and its notification to the human resources department in due course. Overtime of less than half an hour per day shall be disregarded. Overtime requests shall be processed in accordance with a procedure established in a Staff Instruction.
- (7) Any unjustified refusal to work overtime may give rise to disciplinary action.
- (8) Officials in Grade 6 or below shall be entitled to compensation for overtime, which shall consist of either time off, subject to service requirements, or payment. Seconded officials shall only be entitled to time off.
- (9) The overtime hours shall be compensated at the rate of:

- (10) For officials subject to the flexible working hours' system, the working time record shall be adjusted to take into account the form of compensation.
- (11) Officials in Grades 3 to 5 shall not be entitled to compensation for overtime except when required to work substantial or recurrent periods of overtime, in which case the Secretary General shall decide whether to grant time off or payment.

- (2) The Secretary General shall lay down in a Staff Instruction the conditions under which stand-by duty gives rise to financial compensation, as well as the amount of such compensation.
- (3) Officials on stand-by duty called upon to go to their place of work shall be entitled to compensation in accordance with the rules on overtime.
- (4) Officials assigned to shift work shall not be requested to perform stand-by duty following a shift of more than 8 hours completed between 10 pm and 5 am or on a non-working day, unless exceptional circumstances so require.

- (2) In addition, the Secretary General may, in the interest of the Organization, authorize an official to perform teleworking. Teleworking shall be understood as the use of telecommunications technologies to enable officials to work at a distance from the Organization's premises.

Rule 8.1.8: Part-time work

- (1) In addition to the fact that an official may be recruited to the Organization to work part-time, the Secretary General may authorize an official who is already working under contract for the Organization to work part-time, on receipt of an express, written, reasoned request from the official concerned and if service requirements permit, the term "part-time" being understood to mean the performance of at least 50% of full-time work. The Secretary General shall determine, in a Staff Instruction, the proportions by which working time may be reduced.
- (2) An official who is already working under contract for the Organization and who is authorized to work part-time shall receive written notification of the working hours he must thenceforth observe. Authorization shall be given for a maximum period of 1 year and may be renewed, under the same conditions, at the express request of the official under contract concerned. Notification to work part-time shall constitute an amendment to his employment agreement, detailing the organization of working hours and the main implications for the official's working conditions.

- (3) The Secretary General may, at the request of the official under contract concerned, authorize the latter to resume full-time working. Similarly, he may, to meet service requirements, withdraw or temporarily suspend the authorization to work part-time.
- (4) Officials working part-time will receive the proportion of the gross salary for their grade and step corresponding to the hours they work as a proportion of full-time working hours. The Secretary General shall lay down in a Staff Instruction the conditions under which officials may be authorized to work part-time and the rules applicable to the calculation of salary allowances, compensation, leave and, where appropriate, the benefits to which they are entitled in terms of health insurance coverage.
- (5) Part-time work shall not alter the length nor lead to any extension of a fixed-term appointment.

Rule 8.1.9: Absence

- (1) Unauthorized absence of an official without a satisfactory explanation given by the end of the third working day shall render an official liable to disciplinary action under Regulation 12.1.
- (2) Any unauthorized absence may, by decision of the Secretary General, be counted against the annual leave entitlement of the official concerned, or entail withholding the corresponding emoluments, independently of any disciplinary action that may be taken.
- (3) Where an official is absent for more than 14 calendar days without giving a satisfactory explanation, he shall be deemed to have abandoned his post and his appointment shall be deemed to have terminated on the first day of his absence, without notice.

Regulation 8.2: Leave

- (1) Officials of the Organization shall be entitled to a maximum of 12 public holidays. They shall be determined by the Secretary General in a Staff Instruction, taking into account local practice at the duty station.
- (2) Officials of the Organization shall be entitled to paid annual leave; the number of days' leave and the conditions under which they may be taken shall be specified in the Staff Rules.
- (3) The conditions governing sick leave, parental leave, unpaid leave and special leaves, shall be set out in the Staff Rules.

Rule 8.2.1: Annual leave

- (1) Any official shall be entitled to 2,5 working days' annual leave per complete calendar month worked. A fraction of a month - provided it amounts to at least 5 working days - will be taken into consideration when calculating the annual leave entitlement. This will be done by applying the following formula:

$$\frac{2.5 \times \text{number of days}}{30}$$

The result will be rounded up to the next half day.

- (2) An official's entitlement to annual leave shall be calculated from the date of his appointment in respect of the first calendar year of service, and thereafter at the beginning of each calendar year.
- (3) Leave entitlement shall accrue on the basis of the total length of service completed, including any period of sick leave, parental leave (except for unpaid parental leave), or annual leave and, when applicable, of temporary suspension of secondment. However, periods of unpaid leave (including unpaid parental leave) will not count towards entitlement to annual leave.
- (4) Annual leave may be taken in one or more instalments at the convenience of the official concerned and with due regard to the requirements of the service. It shall, however, include at least one period of 10 consecutive working days per calendar year. The Secretary General may issue a Staff Instruction setting out a maximum number of consecutive days' annual leave which may be taken at any one time.
- (5) The Secretary General shall determine, in a Staff Instruction, the limits and arrangements for carrying forward annual leave not taken during previous calendar years.
- (6) To meet service requirements, any official may be called upon to interrupt or postpone his departure on annual leave. In such circumstances and on presentation of documentary evidence, the Secretary General shall grant the official concerned compensation for any loss suffered because of the measures he had to take as a result of the interruption or postponement of his annual leave or of his having been obliged to travel to a specific place. In addition, the Secretary General may, in accordance with the principles of equity, grant him compensation for the inconvenience caused by the interruption or postponement of his annual leave.
- (7) Where, during his annual leave, an official suffers from an illness that would have kept him away from work, his annual leave entitlement shall be extended by the period of illness duly established by medical certificate.

- (8) On cessation of service, financial compensation in respect of unused annual leave may not exceed 30 working days. For the purpose of calculating the above compensation the number of days' payable in respect of outstanding annual leave will be reckoned in the same way as if the leave had been taken when the official was still in post.
- (9) Any official who has taken leave in advance and in excess of that due to him on cessation of his service will repay to the Organization the emoluments received by him for the corresponding period. In addition, in the case of seconded officials, the Organization shall inform the authorities of the State which seconded the official of the matter.

Rule 8.2.2: Additional leaves

- (1) Subject to service requirements, an official shall be entitled to 1 day's leave per year, corresponding to a national holiday of his country or a religious holiday when the day concerned is one of his normal working days. Pursuant to Regulation 14.5(1), officials appointed on short-term shall not be entitled to such leave.
- (2) At his discretion, the Secretary General may grant in a Staff Instruction up to 2 additional days' leave per calendar year, to all or to a group of officials.
- (3) The Secretary General may issue a Staff Instruction granting officials additional days' leave if they take annual leave during certain specified periods of the year. The number of additional leave days shall vary with the number of annual leave days taken during these periods, in conformity with the Staff Instruction issued by the Secretary General, it being understood, however, that no more than 3 additional leave days may be granted per calendar year. However, additional leave days shall not themselves generate entitlement to additional leave days. Pursuant to Regulation 14.5(1), officials on short-term appointments shall not be entitled to such leave.
- (4) If any of the paid additional leaves described in paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) are not taken during the calendar year, they shall be forfeited without indemnity.
- (5) For special reasons, paid additional leave days may be granted to an official at the discretion of the Secretary General.

Rule 8.2.3: Leave for family reasons

- (1) Special leave for family reasons, the duration of which shall vary in conformity with the following table, shall be granted to officials in the particular cases specifically enumerated.

- (2) Special leave for family reasons may not be authorized more than 3 times in any one calendar year. However, the head of the human resources department may grant an official additional special leave in the event of the death of a person mentioned in the table in (1) above.
- (3) Special leave for family reasons shall further include leave for a child's illness, within the limits of 3 days' absence per year and per dependent child, provided that the official's spouse or common-law spouse does not benefit from leave for the same purposes.
- (4) The Secretary General shall lay down in a Staff Instruction implementation details relating to special leave for family reasons.

Rule 8.2.4: Leave for travel

- (1) Any official shall be entitled to leave for travel, varying with the length of the journey:
- (a) if he takes annual leave in the State of which he is a national, or in which he has his main family ties, insofar as this State is not that of his duty station and on the understanding that leave for travel may only be granted in application of the present provision once in every 2 calendar years; a newly-appointed official shall therefore be entitled to leave for travel, for the first time, during the second year following that during which he took up his post;

- (b) if he takes special leave, in conformity with Rule 8.2.3, to attend the funeral of his spouse, his common-law spouse, one of his children, his father or his mother.
- (2) Leave for travel for the outward and return journey shall be:
- (a) one day when the overall travel time by the approved route between the duty station and his place of residence in the State of which he is a national, or in which he has his main family ties, or the place of the funeral is between 12 and 30 hours;
- (b) 2 days when the overall travel time by the approved route is greater than 30 hours.
- (3) The official concerned shall furnish the human resources department with documentary evidence to show that he actually travelled to the State of which he is a national, or in which he has his main family ties, or to the place of the funeral, depending on the case.
- (4) If leave for travel has not been taken, in the case of (1,a) above, within the year during which the official became entitled to take it, the official concerned may be granted leave for travel during the following year, in which case the two-year entitlement period shall run from the year during which he was last granted leave for travel.
- (5) If leave for travel has not been taken, in the case of (1,b) above, at the time of the special leave, it shall be forfeited without indemnity.

Rule 8.2.5: Leave for installation

Any official who changes his residence on taking up his post or on his transfer to another duty station shall be entitled to 3 days' leave for installation purposes, to be taken within the 12 months of the event. Upon the express written request of the official, the Secretary General may grant up to 2 additional days' leave because of the distance involved, or because of compelling obligations incumbent upon the official concerned as a result of his change of residence. Pursuant to Regulation 14.5(1), officials on short-term appointments shall not be entitled to such leave.

Rule 8.2.6: Sick leave

- (1) Under the conditions laid down below, any absence resulting from illness (whether occupational or not) or from physical injury (whether or not caused by a work-related accident as defined by the applicable health insurance coverage scheme) shall be considered as sick leave.

- (2) An official who considers himself unable to carry out his duty by reason of sickness or accident must inform his superior as soon as possible and produce a medical certificate in accordance with paragraph (3) below. Where an official's absence due to sickness or accident does not exceed 2 consecutive working days, he will not be required to produce a medical certificate unless and until his total uncertified sick leave in any one calendar year exceeds a total of 6 working days.
- (3) An official obliged through sickness or accident to absent himself from duty for more than 2 consecutive days, must submit or ask his doctor to send on his behalf a medical certificate stating the date on which the absence from duty begins and its probable duration. The medical certificate must be sent under confidential cover to the head of the human resources department within 2 days of the official's ceasing work. This certificate must also state whether the official concerned must spend his period of illness away from his place of duty. If so, the certificate must reach the head of the human resources department before the official's departure.
- (4) Sick leave begins on the first day of absence through sickness or accident. The relevant social security provisions are applicable from that time.
- (5) An official under contract on sick leave shall be entitled to paid sick leave for up to 90 calendar days. During paid sick leave, the official concerned shall retain his appointment and the date of the decision on his advancement shall remain unchanged from that which it would have been had he not been on sick leave. He shall continue to receive his net salary during this period and any salary supplement referred to in Rule 8.1.4(5) due to him, reduced, where appropriate, by any sums which are paid to him either by third parties or by the Organization, in application of his health insurance coverage scheme provisions. The 90 calendar days' period of paid sick leave shall expire without prejudice to any continued entitlement to benefits under his health insurance coverage scheme, but he shall no longer receive a salary from the Organization.
- (6) Except when the Organization has agreed, in conformity with Rule 7.1.1(2), to make arrangements for a seconded official to receive social security benefits in terms of health insurance coverage scheme, the seconded official's rights during his sick leave shall be governed by the arrangements made by the authorities of the State which seconded him. However, the head of the human resources department shall inform those authorities of any sick leave period exceeding 30 calendar days.
- (7) The head of the human resources department may require an official on sick leave to undergo a medical examination by a doctor approved by the Organization. Similarly, he may require an official to undergo a medical examination by a doctor approved by the Organization and may, if he considers it appropriate, decide to exempt the official from performing his duties. This period of exemption shall be assimilated to sick leave. An official who has to undergo a medical examination or a vaccination required by the Organization may absent himself for that purpose during his working hours.
- (8) Any official exposed to a serious contagious disease must submit to the doctor approved by the Organization a medical certificate stating the disease and date of diagnosis. On the advice of the doctor, the head of the human resources department may require the official not to come to work during the period when transmission of the disease is most probable, but to hold himself at the Organization's disposal, in which case he shall be entitled to the emoluments due to him for the entire period. If a member of the official's family, living with him, is suffering from a serious contagious disease, the Organization must be informed.
- (9) The Secretary General may authorize an official to work therapeutic part-time, on receipt of an express written request from the official concerned, accompanied by the prescription made by the official's doctor and following any provisions in terms of health insurance coverage. The fraction of the authorized therapeutic part-time not worked shall be assimilated to a period of absence for sickness.
- (10) Sick leave shall expire:
  - (a) when the official resumes work, or, failing this;
  - (b) on the expiry of employment the contract in the case of a fixed-term appointment;
  - (c) on the issue of a medical certificate that the official is incapable of resuming his duties on expiry of the 90 calendar days period of sick leave allowed by (5) above without prejudice to any continued entitlement to benefits provided for beyond that period by the health insurance coverage scheme.
- (11) When an official resumes work after an absence due to sickness or accident, whether covered, or not, by a medical certificate, he must immediately inform the head of the human resources department.

(12) In addition to laying himself liable to the disciplinary measures laid down in Rule 12.1.3, an official who fails to inform his immediate superior in good time or to produce the medical certificates required, will forfeit annual leave entitlement for a number of days equal to his period of uncertified absence. Failing a sufficient balance of accrued annual leave, he will forfeit his emoluments for the same period. Should verification reveal that absence from duty has been falsely attributed to sickness this will be deemed to constitute unsatisfactory conduct within the meaning of Rule 12.1.1, and may consequently lead to disciplinary proceedings.

Rule 8.2.7: Parental leave

Rule 8.2.7.1: Maternity leave

- (1) Any official who is pregnant shall be entitled, on the production of a medical certificate showing the probable date of confinement, to maternity leave. The duration of this leave shall be determined in conformity with the rules in force in the health insurance coverage scheme to which she is affiliated. Maternity leave may not, under any circumstances, be less than eight consecutive weeks. Any absence for maternity-related medical reasons beyond the maternity leave, supported by a medical certificate from the official's doctor, shall be considered as sick leave.

- (2) Except where otherwise specified, the Chairman of a Joint Committee may, either on his own initiative or at the request of the official concerned or of the Secretary General, order any investigative measures that he or the Committee deems necessary to settle the case brought before it including, in particular, enquiries, the appearance of the official whose case has been brought before the Committee, and the hearing of witnesses. No official of the Organization summoned by the Chairman of a Joint Committee to be heard before that Committee may refuse to appear, unless he writes to the Chairman giving legitimate grounds for being excused, particularly within the meaning of Rule 10.2.6, or invoking the legal privilege.
- (3) The Chairman of a Joint Committee may ask the Secretary General, in writing, to furnish any document and any information which he or the Committee deems necessary for examination of a case brought before it, without prejudice to the legal privilege but including any document or information contained in the personal file of the official concerned.
- (4) The human resources department shall help the Joint Committees obtain any information they may require to settle the cases brought before them.

- (5) The official concerned and the Secretary General shall have access to all documents and forms of evidence submitted to the Joint Committees.

Rule 10.3.3: Assistance before the Joint Committees

- (1) No person from outside the Organization may attend meetings of the Joint Committees as a representative of the official whose case is to be examined.
- (2) Without prejudice to (1) above, any official whose case is being considered by a Joint Committee may have recourse to a counsel to advise him and, if necessary, prepare any written document intended for a procedure before a Joint Committee.
- (3) The Organization shall not cover the costs incurred by an official who has called upon a counsel to assist him in proceedings before a Joint Committee.
- (4) Any official whose case is being considered by a Joint Committee may, when attending meetings to which he is summoned by the Chairman, be assisted by an official chosen by him, except members of the human resources department and of the legal department.
- (5) An official may refuse to assist an official who requests his assistance before a Joint Committee. However, the Staff Committee shall be bound to ensure that assistance is provided to any official who so wishes and whose case is examined by a Joint Committee.
- (6) The fact that an official assists a colleague before a Joint Committee shall not, under any circumstances, be prejudicial to his professional situation or to the course of his career.
- (7) Any official assisting a colleague whose case is being considered by a Joint Committee shall be bound to secrecy.

Rule 10.3.4: Basis for a consultative opinion

- (1) The members of Joint Committees shall decide on the content of their consultative opinions after hearing the views of all the parties concerned. A consultative opinion shall only be given after the Joint Committee concerned has made a detailed study of the case brought before it.

- (2) The members of Joint Committees shall base their opinions on documentary evidence, on the terms of the employment agreement of the official concerned, and on the provisions of the Staff Regulations, the present Rules and the Staff Instructions. Insofar as they can find no grounds for their consultative opinion in those provisions and their interpretation, they shall have recourse to general principles of law, and to principles of equity.
- (3) Only evidence about which the official concerned has had an opportunity to express himself may be used by a Joint Committee as a basis for its opinion on his case.
- (4) Members of a Joint Committee shall not be allowed to abstain to vote on matters put to the vote. Joint Committees shall adopt consultative opinions by a simple majority. The Chairman's vote shall be preponderant.
- (5) If the cases brought before it relate to the same problem a Joint Committee may decide to handle such cases together and formulate a single consultative opinion.

Rule 10.3.5: Consultative opinion

- (1) A consultative opinion shall comprise:
  - (a) a statement of the relevant facts concerning the case brought before the Joint Committee;
  - (b) an account of the procedure followed, including copies of relevant documents submitted to the Committee and, where applicable, of witnesses' statements received by the Committee;
  - (c) the opinion of the Joint Committee, duly substantiated, accompanied where relevant by the individual opinions of its members on given points.
- (2) The Chairman of the relevant Joint Committee shall sign the consultative opinion. The opinion shall be forwarded to the Secretary General within a reasonable period of time following the date on which the matter was referred to the Committee.
- (3) The Chairman shall inform the official whose case has been examined by the Committee of the date on which its consultative opinion was forwarded to the Secretary General.

Rule 10.3.6: Decision of the Secretary General

- (1) When making his decision, the Secretary General shall take into account the consultative opinion communicated to him but shall not be bound by it. Furthermore, notwithstanding the procedure applicable by the Joint Committees, the Secretary General may, before making his decision, hear the official concerned and order additional enquiries or checks.
- (2) If, before making his decision, the Secretary General has ordered additional enquiries or checks to be carried out in conformity with (1) above, he may not take his decision until after he has given the official concerned an opportunity to express himself about any new elements liable to have a bearing on that decision.
- (3) The Secretary General shall justify his decision. He shall communicate it, in writing, to the official concerned within a reasonable period of time, to the immediate superior of the official concerned, and to the Chairman of the Committee which examined the case. Pursuant to Regulation 10.3(5), the Secretary General shall also provide the official with a copy of the consultative opinion of the Joint Committee.

- (4) Before the appointment of an official is terminated in application of paragraphs (3,b) to (3,e), the official shall be informed of the situation and efforts shall be made over 3 months to reassign him to a vacant post consistent with his qualifications and experience. For that purpose the official shall be entitled to priority consideration of his application for posts which are the subject of a vacancy notice during that period. Moreover, the Organization shall provide the official with appropriate training if such training will facilitate his transfer to another post. If a suitable post is found, it shall be offered to the official concerned, in conformity with the relevant Regulations and Rules. If no suitable post is found, the official shall be notified of the decision to terminate his appointment in conformity with paragraph (10) below. The notice period to which the official is entitled shall begin to run on the date of notification of that decision. If a suitable post is found but the official refuses to take up such a post, the notice period to which the official is entitled shall begin to run on the date of his refusal.

- (5) If pursuant to (4) above, the official refuses to take up a vacant post offered to him although it does not involve downgrading or change of duty station, he shall not be entitled to the termination indemnity.

The decision shall detail the grounds for terminating the official's appointment. It shall also indicate, in accordance with (2), (3), (5), (6) and (7) above, whether a period of notice is applicable, in which case its duration shall be specified, and whether a termination indemnity is payable.

Rule 11.1.1: Termination of appointment on medical grounds

- (1) In conformity with Regulation 11.1(3,b), the Secretary General may terminate the appointment of an official if the latter is unable to perform his functions as a consequence of an infirmity or a diminution of his physical or mental faculties.
- (2) An official's inability to perform his functions must be jointly certified by a doctor approved by the Organization and a duly qualified doctor treating the official. In the event of a disagreement, a third doctor shall be consulted. In any case the inability must be certified as of long duration or likely to recur frequently.

- (3) Before a vacant post is offered to the official, in conformity with Regulation 11.1(4), the official must be considered medically fit for such a post by a doctor approved by the Organization.

Rule 11.1.2: Notice of termination of appointment

    - (ii) 6 months, if he holds an unclassified post or a post classified in Grade 2 or above.
- (2) The notice period shall run from the date on which the decision to terminate the appointment is notified, or from any subsequent date mentioned in the decision of termination of appointment.
- (3) At the express, written request of the official, the Secretary General may decide to shorten or waive the notice period. In such circumstances, cessation of service shall take effect on the date specified in the Secretary General's decision and the official shall only be entitled to the emoluments due to him for the period prior to that date.
- (4) The Secretary General may decide, in the interests of the Organization, that an official should not perform his functions for the whole or part of the notice period, in which case the official concerned shall be entitled each month to the emoluments due to him during the full duration of the notice period.
- (5) Once a decision to terminate an appointment has been notified to an official, the Secretary General may not revoke his decision without the consent of the official concerned.

Rule 11.1.3: Indemnity on termination of appointment

- (1) The amount of the indemnity payable by the Organization on termination of the appointment of an official under contract to whom this indemnity is granted in application of Regulation 11.1(3) and who has at least 1 year's service with the Organization, shall be calculated on the basis of the following cumulative scale:
  - (a) from the first year to the fifth year of service, the indemnity shall correspond to 30% of the monthly gross salary of the official concerned for each year of service;
  - (b) from the sixth year to the tenth year of service, it shall correspond to 37.5% of the monthly gross salary of the official concerned for each year of service;
  - (c) from the eleventh year to the fifteenth year of service, it shall correspond to 45% of the monthly gross salary of the official concerned for each year of service;
  - (d) from the sixteenth year of service onwards, it shall correspond to 60% of the monthly gross salary of the official concerned for each year of service.
- (2) The monthly gross salary used as the basis for calculating the indemnity on termination of appointment shall correspond to the arithmetic mean of the salaries, to which the official concerned was entitled during the last three calendar months of his service in the Organization, including, when appropriate, any salary supplement due in application of Rule 8.1.4(5) and Rule 3.3.4.
- (3) A Staff Instruction shall detail the method of calculating the indemnity payable by the Organization on termination of the appointment of a seconded official to whom this indemnity is granted by virtue of Regulation 11.1(3).
- (4) The indemnity on termination of appointment shall fall due as soon as the said termination actually takes effect as a consequence of the event creating the indemnity entitlement.
- (5) Any periods during which an official was employed as a seconded official shall be deducted from his length of service entitlement for the purpose of calculating the indemnity on termination of his appointment as an official under contract.

Regulation 11.2: Expiry of appointment

In accordance with Regulation 2.2(3,b), and without prejudice to the application of Regulation 3.1(1) and (2), fixed-term appointments shall terminate without prior notice on the expiry date specified in the letter of approval of secondment, or in the case of officials under contract, in the letter of appointment.

Regulation 11.3: Resignation

Any official of the Organization may resign on giving the Secretary General the notice required under the terms of the relevant Staff Regulations or Staff Rules.

Rule 11.3.1: Resignation

- (1) An official who resigns shall inform the Secretary General unequivocally in writing of his intention to leave the service of the Organization definitively.
- (2) The periods of notice referred to in Rule 11.1.2 shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to notice of resignation.
- (3) The rules pertaining to notice of termination of appointment shall apply mutatis mutandis, to notice of resignation.
- (4) An official who has tendered his resignation may not withdraw his resignation once it has been accepted by the Organization, unless the Secretary General agrees on the withdrawal.
- (5) An official who considers his resignation as legitimate, within the meaning of Rule A.3.3 (1,c), must expressly invoke this reason in his resignation letter and provide all elements to support it. Only such express invocation shall allow for the initiation of the procedure established under Rule A.3.3.

Regulation 11.4: Age-limit

Officials of the Organization shall not normally be retained in service beyond the age of 65 years. The Secretary General may, in exceptional cases and in the interests of the Organization, extend this age limit, in which case he shall inform the official concerned sufficiently in advance.

Rule 11.4.1: Decision of cessation of service

- (1) An official who reaches the age-limit or who retires before the age of 65 shall be notified a decision of cessation of service.
- (2) The decision of cessation of service shall take effect on the last day of the month during which the official concerned reaches the age-limit or retires.

Regulation 11.5: Death

Within reasonable limits and insofar as such expenses are not met by third parties, the Organization shall cover the expenses relating to the death of an official of the Organization and the repatriation of his body if his death is attributable to the performance of his functions or occurs while he is on mission.

Rule 11.5.1: Death

- (1) If the Organization covers the expenses relating to the death of an official or the repatriation of his body, the persons who would have had to meet those expenses and who benefit from their being covered by the Organization, must subrogate the Organization simultaneously in respect of their entitlement to reimbursement of the said expenses by third parties.
- (2) Any decision resulting from the cessation of service of the deceased official, shall be notified to the persons referred to in Article II(6) of the Statute of the International Labour Organization Administrative Tribunal (ILOAT), on receipt of their written request.
- (3) If, in application of the provisions laid out in the health insurance coverage scheme, the beneficiaries of a deceased official are entitled to benefits in connection with the latter's death, they shall be responsible for making the necessary arrangements to receive such benefits. The human resources department shall endeavour to assist them in carrying out these formalities.

Regulation 11.6: Effects of cessation of service

The Staff Rules shall lay down the effects of cessation of service.

Rule 11.6.1: Information to be given to the authorities of a State which seconded an official

If the appointment of a seconded official is terminated for a reason other than those referred to in Regulation 11.1(2,d) and (2,e), the Secretary General shall, as soon as possible, inform the authorities of the State which seconded the official concerned.

Rule 11.6.2: Medical examination on cessation of service

On cessation of service, for any reason whatsoever, an official shall be required to undergo a medical examination carried out by a doctor approved by the Organization. If the official refuses to undergo such an examination prior to his departure, he shall sign a document forfeiting his right to make any subsequent claim against the Organization in respect of illnesses or injuries which allegedly occurred before the effective date of cessation of service.

Rule 11.6.3: Settlement of entitlements

- (1) On cessation of service for any reason whatsoever, the following operations shall be carried out:

  - (d) settlement of any other sums which the Organization may owe the official or which he may owe the Organization;
- (2) The settlement of the entitlements of the official concerned, carried out in conformity with (1) above, shall be the subject of a final settlement of account.

- (3) Within the limits of the provisions of Rules 6.1.1 and 6.2.1, officials under contract shall be entitled to have travel and removal expenses for themselves and their families covered by the Organization on their cessation of service.
- (4) Depending on the reasons for cessation of service, and in conformity with the relevant provisions of the Staff Regulations and of the present Rules, the decision on cessation of service may entitle an official to payment by the Organization of:
  - (a) a retirement indemnity calculated in conformity with Rule 11.4.3;
  - (b) a termination indemnity calculated in conformity with Rule 11.1.3.

Rule 11.6.4: Obligations binding beyond cessation of service

In conformity with the provisions of the Staff Regulations, of the present Rules and of the Staff Instructions, certain obligations shall continue to be binding on former officials, in particular the obligation in Regulation 1.4 relating to the use of information, and the obligation in Regulation 1.8 relating to privileges and immunities.

Rule 11.6.5: Internal Scheme for the Compensation of Involuntary Loss of Employment

Under the conditions and according to the provisions laid down in Appendix 3 to the present Rules, officials under contract may be entitled to benefits in application of the Internal Scheme for the Compensation of Involuntary Loss of Employment.

Rule 11.6.6: Certificate of service and reference

- (1) On cessation of service, an official shall receive a certificate of service relating to the post(s) held, the nature of his duties and the length of his service within the Organization.
- (2) The Secretary General shall prepare, at the express written request of the official or of his national administration, a reference concerning his competence, the quality of his work and his conduct in the performance of his functions.

CHAPTER 12:
DISCIPLINE

Regulation 12.1: Disciplinary measures for unsatisfactory conduct or misconduct

In accordance with the Staff Rules, the Secretary-General may:

- (a) impose disciplinary measures on officials of the Organization whose conduct is unsatisfactory;
- (b) summarily dismiss an official of the Organization for serious misconduct.

Rule 12.1.1: Unsatisfactory conduct and misconduct

- (1) Any act or omission, whether deliberate or resulting from negligence committed by an official in contravention of the terms of his declaration of loyalty, of the Staff Regulations, Staff Rules or Staff Instructions, or of the standards of conduct befitting his status as an international official, may constitute unsatisfactory conduct within the meaning of Regulation 12.1 and may lead to the institution of disciplinary proceedings and the imposition of disciplinary measures for unsatisfactory conduct or misconduct.
- (2) Misconduct is understood as a particularly serious unsatisfactory conduct which may warrant the official's dismissal or summary dismissal in accordance with rule 12.1.3(1) (i) and (j).

Rule 12.1.2: Warning

- (1) Direct superiors may give oral or written warnings to their subordinates for unsatisfactory conduct which is not serious enough to warrant the institution of formal disciplinary proceedings. Such warnings may also be given by the head of the human resources department if he considers that an official has not fulfilled an obligation vis-à-vis the human resources department or that the official's behaviour or attitude is contrary to the rules of conduct and general discipline. In such a case, the head of the human resources department shall inform the immediate superior of the official concerned of the warning that he has given.
- (2) A warning, whether written or oral, is by its nature informal. Its purpose is to help the official concerned not to repeat the action for which he was called to order and to inform him that, if he does not heed the warning, disciplinary proceedings may be instituted. Warnings shall therefore not be recorded in the official's personal file.

- (3) Under no circumstances shall a warning be considered as a disciplinary measure. However, in the event that other acts or omissions committed by the official result in the institution of disciplinary proceedings, the unsatisfactory conduct which gave rise to the warning may be taken into consideration in the disciplinary proceedings.

Rule 12.1.3: Disciplinary measures

- (1) Disciplinary measures may take one of the following forms:
- (a) Reprimand;
  - (b) Obligation to undertake training or take other specific action to remedy the situation, with the official's consent. Failure to give such consent shall result in the application of another disciplinary measure;
  - (c) Restitution and/or fine;
  - (d) Transfer without downgrading;
  - (e) Suspension from duty with reduced emoluments or without emoluments for a period not exceeding two weeks;
  - (f) Deferment of advancement of officials under contract for a period not exceeding twelve months;
  - (g) Relegation by one step of officials under contract;
  - (h) Transfer with downgrading;
  - (i) Dismissal with or without forfeiture of part of the relevant period of notice, the termination indemnity and other allowances, including the ISCILE compensation;
  - (j) Summary dismissal for serious misconduct with forfeiture of the termination indemnity and other allowances, including the ISCILE compensation.
- (2) A single action or omission amounting to unsatisfactory conduct or misconduct shall not give rise to more than one disciplinary measure.

Rule 12.1.4: Criteria for imposing disciplinary measures

- (1) The disciplinary measure must be proportionate to the seriousness of the unsatisfactory conduct.
- (2) In assessing the seriousness of the unsatisfactory conduct, the following criteria shall be taken into consideration:
- (a) the degree to which the standard of conduct has been breached by the official;

- (b) the gravity of the adverse consequences and damage caused to the Organization, its personnel or any third party;
  - (c) the recurrence of unsatisfactory conduct by the official, particularly when there is a repetition of unsatisfactory conduct of a similar nature;
  - (d) the official position held by the official and the extent to which the official was entrusted with responsibilities in matters to which the unsatisfactory conduct relates;
  - (e) collusion with other officials in the act of unsatisfactory conduct;
  - (f) whether the unsatisfactory conduct was a deliberate act or committed through gross negligence;
  - (g) the official's length of satisfactory service; and
  - (h) the official's admission of the unsatisfactory conduct prior to the date the unsatisfactory conduct is discovered and any action taken by the official to mitigate any adverse consequences resulting from his unsatisfactory conduct.
- (3) The disciplinary measure of dismissal for misconduct is particularly appropriate:
- (a) in case of serious or recurrent unsatisfactory conduct;
  - (b) when the unsatisfactory conduct has jeopardized, or would in the future be likely to jeopardize, the reputation of the Organization and its personnel;
  - (c) in case of serious threats of officials against their superiors or other officials;
  - (d) when it is found that an official has misused funds of the Organization or other public funds;
  - (e) when the unsatisfactory conduct relates to matters for which the official is entrusted with specific responsibilities and when the official has deliberately ignored such responsibilities;
  - (f) if the official has, prior or subsequent to appointment, deliberately misled the Organization through false statement, misrepresentation or fraud;
  - (g) when the breach of trust is so serious that continuation of the official's services is not in the interest of the Organization.
- (4) The disciplinary measure of summary dismissal can only be imposed when the misconduct is blatant and the interests of the Organization require immediate termination of the official's appointment.

Regulation 12.2: Preliminary inquiry and interim measures

Where an official of the Organization is alleged to have engaged in unsatisfactory conduct or misconduct for which disciplinary measures may be imposed or where an incident of possible unsatisfactory conduct or misconduct is discovered, the Secretary General is empowered, within the limits specified in the Staff Rules, to undertake any preliminary inquiry he deems necessary to establish the truth and to take any interim measures he deems appropriate for the proper handling of the situation.

Rule 12.2.1: Preliminary inquiry

- (1) Where an official is alleged to have engaged in unsatisfactory conduct or misconduct for which disciplinary measures may be imposed or where an incident of possible unsatisfactory conduct or misconduct is discovered, a preliminary inquiry will be undertaken, if necessary, to determine the substance and circumstances of the matter.
- (2) The purpose of the preliminary inquiry is to determine whether there is sufficient evidence to merit the institution of formal disciplinary proceedings. In the course of such inquiry, the official concerned may be asked to provide explanations.
- (3) The Secretary General shall appoint expert(s) to conduct the preliminary inquiry.
- (4) The expert(s) conducting the preliminary inquiry may avail himself (themselves) of the assistance of other departments.
- (5) All officials have a duty to cooperate with the expert(s) conducting the preliminary inquiry.

Rule 12.2.2: Interim measures

- (1) When a charge of unsatisfactory conduct or misconduct is made against an official, the Secretary General may temporarily assign the official to another post or to other duties until the end of the inquiry of the charges against him.
- (2) When a charge of misconduct or serious misconduct is made against an official and if the Secretary General considers that the charges are well founded and that the official's continuance in office pending the results of an inquiry might be prejudicial to the service, the Secretary General may alternatively suspend him from duty during the inquiry of the charges against him and pending completion of disciplinary proceedings, after giving him the opportunity to be heard.

- (3) Such suspension shall be with pay unless the Secretary General considers that the charges of misconduct against the official concerned may justify his dismissal or summary dismissal. The suspension shall be without prejudice to the rights of the official and shall not constitute a disciplinary measure. Consequently, if a suspension is without pay and the charge of misconduct is subsequently not sustained, any salary withheld shall be restored.
- (4) The Secretary General shall notify in writing the official concerned of his decision to temporarily assign him to another post or to other duties or to suspend him. The decision shall state the reasons for the decision and its probable duration. In case of suspension, the decision shall specify as to whether the official is to continue to receive his salary during the period of suspension.
- (5) The interim measures mentioned above may normally be taken for a maximum of 4 months, except where the Joint Disciplinary Committee has been asked for its opinion in the matter and considers that an additional inquiry is necessary, or pending the result of criminal proceedings. Interim measures shall be re-examined after 2 months.

Regulation 12.3: Disciplinary procedure

- (1) No disciplinary proceedings may be instituted against an official unless he has been notified in writing of the allegations against him, and of his right to seek the assistance of another official in his defence, and has been given a reasonable opportunity to respond to those allegations.
- (2) No official shall be subject to disciplinary measures until the matter has been referred to a Joint Disciplinary Committee for advice as to what measures, if any, are appropriate. However, no such advice shall be required:
  - (a) if referral to the Joint Disciplinary Committee is waived by mutual agreement of the official concerned and the Secretary-General;
  - (b) in respect of summary dismissal imposed by the Secretary-General in cases where the seriousness of the misconduct warrants immediate termination of appointment.

- (3) In the event that the case is not submitted to the Joint Disciplinary Committee in accordance with (2) above, the official or former official concerned may, within 2 months of having received written notification of the measure, request that the measure be reviewed by such a Committee. Such a request shall not have the effect of suspending the measure. After the advice of the Committee has been received, the Secretary-General shall decide as soon as possible what action to take in respect thereof.
  - (4) The Secretary General shall inform the President of the Organization in advance of the institution of any disciplinary proceedings against officials holding positions of responsibility.
  - (5) Any decision by the Secretary General to impose a disciplinary measure on an official of the Organization shall be notified to the official concerned in writing, stating the reasons for the decision.
  - (6) The Secretary General shall inform the administration of origin of any seconded official against whom disciplinary measures have been taken.
  - (7) All the disciplinary measures laid down in the Staff Rules shall be recorded in the personal files of the officials concerned. However, under the conditions detailed in the Staff Rules and on expiry of the period stipulated therein, records of disciplinary measures shall be deleted from personal files.
- (3) The official concerned shall be given a time limit of 10 working days in which to supply explanations and justifications in writing to the Secretary General, who may extend this time limit in circumstances beyond the official's control. The official shall be advised that he may nominate another official to assist him, except members of the human resources department and of the legal department.
  - (4) Within 10 working days of receiving the explanations and justifications given by the official, the Secretary General shall decide:
    - (a) not to institute disciplinary proceedings; or
    - (b) to institute disciplinary proceedings and to seek the opinion of the Joint Disciplinary Committee, except in situations described in Regulation 12.3(2); or
    - (c) in situations described in Regulation 12.3(2), to impose a disciplinary measure.
  - (5) When, pursuant to (4,a) above, the official concerned has been invited to give his explanation of an alleged unsatisfactory conduct and it has subsequently been decided not to institute disciplinary proceedings against him, he shall be so informed in writing. In such event, no trace of the disciplinary proceedings is to appear in the official's personal file.
  - (6) When, pursuant to (4,b) above, the official concerned has been invited to give his explanation of an alleged unsatisfactory conduct and it has subsequently been decided to institute disciplinary proceedings against him, he shall be so informed in writing and the Secretary General shall send a copy of the notification together with the elements which led to the institution of the disciplinary proceedings to the Chairman of the Joint Disciplinary Committee.
  - (7) When, pursuant to (4,c) above, the official concerned has been invited to give his explanation of an alleged unsatisfactory conduct and it has subsequently been decided to impose him a disciplinary measure, he shall be so informed in writing and the decision shall specify the reasons for the disciplinary measure.

Rule 12.3.1: Procedural requirements

- (1) Pursuant to Regulation 12.3(4), if the Secretary General intends to institute disciplinary proceedings against an official holding an unclassified post or a post classified in Grade 1, he shall inform the President of the Organization.
- (2) Pursuant to Regulation 12.3(1), if the Secretary General intends to institute disciplinary proceedings against an official, he shall address to the official a confidential memorandum in duplicate describing the unsatisfactory conduct or misconduct and informing the official of the charges against him. If the Committee considers that it requires the testimony of the official concerned or of other witnesses, it may, at its sole discretion, obtain such testimony by written affidavit, by personal appearance before the Committee, or by other means of communication. All officials have a duty to cooperate with the Committee, without prejudice to the legal privilege.

(b) lodge a claim in writing requesting the Secretary General to take a decision on his case, the grounds for which have not previously been the subject of any decision by the Secretary General. The Secretary General shall notify his decision, giving reasons, to the official concerned within 60 calendar days following receipt of the claim. When the period has expired, the absence of a reply to the claim shall be deemed to be an implicit decision of rejection which may also be challenged.

(2) A decision may be challenged within the Organization either through the review procedure or directly through the internal appeal procedure. These two procedures cannot be initiated simultaneously with respect to the same decision.

Rule 13.1.1: Limitation periods for a request for review and for an internal appeal

- (1) The request for review shall be made within 30 calendar days of the notification of the challenged decision.
- (2) The internal appeal shall be lodged within 60 calendar days of notification of the challenged decision.

- (3) Expiry of the limitation period shall not prejudice the admissibility of the request if the latter was submitted before expiry of the said limitation period and supplemented in conformity with (2) above.

(4) The challenging of a decision shall be treated as a request for review if the official has not clearly indicated his choice between the review procedure and the internal appeal procedure.

Rule 13.1.3: Admissibility of a request for review or of an internal appeal

- (1) Upon receipt of a request for review or of an internal appeal, the Secretary General shall first examine whether it is admissible. In particular, it may be declared not to be admissible when it:

  - (c) is lodged outside the relevant limitation period prescribed in Rule 13.1.1;
  - (d) is lodged by a person who is neither an official of the organization nor one of the persons designated in Article II (6) of the Statute of the ILOAT;
  - (e) challenges a final decision or a decision on a matter upon which a judgement has been pronounced by the ILOAT, having the authority of res judicata.
- (2) In circumstances beyond the official's control, however, the Secretary General may consider admissible a request for review or an internal appeal brought after the limitation periods prescribed in Rule 13.1.1.
- (3) When the Secretary General rejects a request for review or an internal appeal on grounds of admissibility, he shall give the reasons for his decision in writing. The challenged decision shall then become final.
- (4) When the Secretary General considers a request for review or an internal appeal admissible, the review procedure or internal appeal procedure shall continue.

- (1) While notifying him of the composition of the Joint Appeals Committee, the Chairman shall give the official 10 working days from the date of receipt of such notification, to complete his internal appeal, should he so wish, by way of a written memorandum addressed to the Chairman of the Committee.
- (2) A written memorandum shall be signed and dated, but shall not be subject to any other conditions relating to its form. It shall state, inter alia, the reasons and grounds for the internal appeal made by the official and shall be accompanied by any documents he wishes to bring before the Committee.
- (3) Upon receipt of the written memorandum or at the end of the period referred to in (1) above if no such memorandum was submitted by the official, the Chairman of the Committee shall request the Secretary General to reply within 10 working days. For this purpose, the Chairman shall send to the Secretary General any document submitted by the official. The Secretary General's memorandum shall be forwarded to the Chairman of the Committee who shall send a copy of it to the official.
- (4) If the Secretary General's memorandum contains new elements, and the Chairman of the Committee considers it necessary for the official to pronounce on those elements, the Chairman shall give him the opportunity to submit an additional reply. This provision shall apply to each written reply from the official or from the Secretary General.
- (5) Should one or other or both parties fail to provide their memoranda within the prescribed limitation period, the Committee shall give its consultative opinion on the basis of the elements at its disposal.

Rule 13.3.4: Powers of the Joint Appeals Committee

- (1) The Joint Appeals Committee shall give a consultative opinion only on the aspects of the decision raised and challenged by an official in his internal appeal. The Chairman may invite the official to clarify the substance of his appeal.
- (2) The Joint Appeals Committee shall verify the facts invoked by the official or by the Secretary General insofar as they are disputed, and shall take account of any other fact that is pertinent to the settlement of the internal appeal, unless the appeal relates to a decision to apply a disciplinary measure, in which case the Committee may take the initiative of verifying any fact even if it is not disputed.

- (3) The Joint Appeals Committee shall check on whether the proper procedure was followed for taking the decision, unless the procedure followed is not challenged. Except in the situation described in (5,b) below, it shall give a consultative opinion on the substance of the case brought before it, even if it finds that there was some irregularity in the procedure followed for taking the challenged decision.
- (4) If the procedural irregularity concerned was such as to influence the Secretary General's decision in a manner detrimental to the official, and if responsibility for the procedural irregularity can be attributed to the Joint Committee that expressed the opinion on which the challenged decision was based, the Joint Appeals Committee shall take the procedural steps which should have been taken by the first Committee and, in the opinion it sends to the Secretary General, shall draw conclusions based on the correct application of the prescribed procedure.
- (5) If the procedural irregularity concerned was such as to influence the Secretary General's decision in a manner detrimental to the official, and if responsibility for the procedural irregularity can be attributed to the Secretary General, the Joint Appeals Committee shall:
- (a) if circumstances permit:
- either take the procedural steps which should initially have been taken by the Secretary General,
  - or ask the Secretary General to remedy the irregularities committed in applying the procedure which should initially have been observed,
- and, in the opinion it sends to the Secretary General, shall draw conclusions based on the correct application of the prescribed procedure;
- (b) if circumstances do not permit application of (a) above, recommend to the Secretary General that he should annul the challenged decision for reasons of procedural irregularity.

- (7) The Joint Appeals Committee shall verify, within the limits of the aspects challenged by the official, whether the decision concerned conforms to the official's employment agreement, to the Staff Regulations, to the present Rules and to any pertinent Staff Instructions.
- (8) When, in application of Regulation 13.1, an official or former official of the Organization appeals against a disciplinary measure imposed on him and refers the matter to the Joint Appeals Committee, the Committee shall, notwithstanding the application of the provisions of (1) to (7) above, give an opinion on the validity of the allegation that an unsatisfactory conduct or misconduct has been committed and on the appropriateness of the disciplinary measure.

- (2) In accordance with the provisions of Article VII (2) of the Statute of the ILOAT, the appeal must be filed within 90 calendar days following notification to the official of the challenged decision.
- (3) In the event that the Secretary General does not take action within 60 calendar days when a request for a review or an internal appeal is referred to him, the challenged decision shall be deemed to be final and may then be challenged before the ILOAT.
- (4) The filing of an appeal with the ILOAT shall not imply suspension of the execution of the challenged decision.

Regulation 13.5: Settlement by mutual agreement

In exceptional cases the Secretary General shall be empowered, in the interests of the Organization and, where applicable, within the limits of budgetary provisions, to conclude in writing any mutually agreed settlement designed to end a disagreement or dispute arising from application of the terms of an employment agreement or of any pertinent provision of the present Regulations, the Staff Rules or the Staff Instructions, provided that the official of the Organization concerned or, if applicable, any other person covered by Article II (6) of the Statute of the ILOAT agrees, on conclusion of the settlement, to renounce all right of appeal in respect of the said disagreement or dispute.

  - (b) Spouses of children of the official and/or the latter's spouse, who are under 21 or are full-time students under 25, are considered as dependants if they are still being significantly supported by the official;
  - (c) Grandchildren of the official and/or the latter's spouse are considered as dependants if they are being significantly supported by the official and if the official's or spouse's child who is the parent of such grandchildren is under 21 or a full-time student under 25.

Rule A.2.6: Date on which the family situation is taken into account

- (1) Any alteration in the family situation shall be taken into account as and from the first day of the month following that in which the alteration occurred.

Rule A.2.9: Reduction of tax

If an official pays a maintenance allowance in application of a statutory obligation or a court order, to his divorced or legally separated spouse, or to his or his spouse's parents, grandparents or great-grandparents or descendants, and if the expenditure so incurred would in all fairness justify a reduction in that official's tax, the Secretary General may, at the official's request, exercise his discretionary powers to reduce that tax, giving reasons for his decision.

Rule A.2.10: Assessment by household

When both spouses are officials of the Organization, their tax shall be calculated individually on the basis of the applicable provisions. However, dependants shall be taken into account only when calculating the tax payable by the spouse with the higher salary.

Rule A.2.11: Internal scheme for the compensation of involuntary loss of employment

- (1) Before 15 February each year, the Secretary General shall provide each official with a statement indicating, for the previous year:
  - the gross emoluments, other than the amounts and allowances specified in Rule A.2.2(3), paid to that official,
  - his net taxable income, as determined in accordance with the present Rules,

APPENDIX 4:
ASSET RELATED LOANS

In conformity with Staff Rule 5.5.3, the present Appendix lays down the provisions governing loans granted by the Organization to its officials.

Rule A.4.1: Purpose of loans

- (1) The loans which the Secretary General may grant to officials making requests in conformity with the procedures laid down in this Appendix, are for use in financing:
  - (a) the acquisition of property and property rights relating to the main residence of the official concerned;
  - (b) expenditure on the construction, repair, improvement or upkeep of property and property rights relating to the main residence of the official concerned;
  - (c) the acquisition of a vehicle.
- (2) A loan may only be used to finance the project for which it was granted.

Rule A.4.2: Maximum amount of loans and rate of interest

- (1) The maximum amount for which a loan can be granted is:
  - four months grade 5 step 6 salary of the relevant salary scale of the official's duty station for property related loans;
  - two months grade 5 step 6 salary of the relevant salary scale of the official's duty station for loans related to the purchase of a vehicle;

- (2) The rate of interest payable by the official when reimbursing the sums shall be fixed at the start of each financial year. The rate of interest shall remain the same throughout the duration of the loan.
- (3) If the official chooses to repay the loan early, the interest payable at the date of the repayment shall be calculated, but no penalty or administrative charge will be made.

Rule A.4.3: Repayment period

- (1) Loans shall be repaid by means of even monthly instalments, taking into account any adjustments made to the first instalment, over a maximum period of:
  - eight years for property related loans;
  - five years for loans related to the purchase of a vehicle.
- (2) If the official concerned has a fixed-term contract, the repayment period shall not extend beyond the end of the contract. However, an official whose fixed-term contract is extended or converted into an indeterminate appointment may request an extension of the repayment period within the maximum (initial repayment period included).

Rule A.4.4: Granting the loan

- (1) Any official of the Organization may apply for a loan by filling in a standard form, available from the human resources department. Officials who have already benefited from a loan may only apply for a new loan after a period of 5 years.
- (2) After the file has been studied by the Organization, a preliminary loan proposal will be made to the official concerned. The proposal will set out the terms of the loan, the repayment conditions and all obligations incumbent on the borrower.
- (3) The official has 10 working days from receipt of the proposal to accept or reject it. Furthermore, acceptance may be withdrawn before the loan contract becomes final, by written notification to the human resources department.
- (4) The loan contract shall become final 5 working days after acceptance and the Organization shall immediately make the sum to be borrowed available to the official concerned by cheque or transfer.

Rule A.4.5: Repayment management

(1) Repayment arrangements shall be as follows:

- For officials under contract, the monthly instalments shall be deducted from their salaries;
- For seconded officials who receive monthly allowances directly from the Organization, the monthly instalments shall be deducted from their allowances;
- For seconded officials who do not receive monthly allowances directly from the Organization or any monthly allowances at all, the monthly instalments shall be paid to the Organization in Euros.

(2) The first instalment shall be paid during the month following the one in which the loan was made available to the official concerned.

(3) If the sums granted are not used for the purposes specified, the Organization may demand the immediate repayment of the remaining sums due and institute disciplinary proceedings.

(4) If the asset is sold, the Organization may demand the immediate repayment of the remaining capital due.

(5) If the official's appointment is terminated for any reason whatsoever, the sum remaining due on the date of cessation of service shall be payable immediately. To that effect, the Organization may deduct the sum remaining due from any amount owing to the official. If the amount owing to the official concerned is nil or does not suffice to repay the full sum remaining due, the official concerned must repay that sum; otherwise INTERPOL may take legal proceedings against him under the law applicable to the dispute and, in the case of seconded officials, may inform their administrations that they have not paid their debts to the Organization.
