

INTERPOL

TOGETHER AGAINST CRIME

INTERPOL Secondment Programme Mobilizing Law Enforcement Expertise Worldwide

WHAT IS IT ABOUT?

At INTERPOL, we don't just respond to crime across borders — we anticipate it before it happens. Through our global network and operational support, we provide real-time assistance to our 196 member countries' police and the law enforcement community at whole.

The INTERPOL Secondment Programme welcomes qualified and skillset law enforcement officers and experts with intelligence analysis, investigation and operational capabilities across crime areas and jurisdictions such as: digital and cybercrime, forensics, financial crime, environmental security, human trafficking, counter-terrorism, international cooperation and crimes against children.

HOW TO JOIN?

How it works – Application Process:

1. Candidates can apply online by choosing their preferred crime areas via the official recruitment portal (Recruitment Hub).
2. Official support letters to be submitted through respective National Central Bureau (NCB).
3. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis, in alignment with our current and future operational needs.
4. Assessments may include a written exercise and interview.
5. Successful candidates will be part of the secondment programme roster and will remain in the roster for three years.

WHAT IS IN IT FOR ME?

As a candidate of the Secondment Programme, you will:

- Be offered assignments across INTERPOL's global network
- Remain eligible for deployment in critical crime areas, operations support, investigations coordination, intelligence analysis, and more
- Boost your skills and elevate your career

YOUR EXPERTISE MATTERS!

JOIN US!
APPLY NOW

Your support will play a vital role in strengthening our shared commitment.
Please share this flyer broadly.